JESUS APPROACHES: A
WOMEN'S RETREAT WITH
LIZ KELLEY, HANKINSON

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit."

The hardest type of death, other than physical death, is death to self for the good of self and others. Whenever I sacrifice myself for the good of others it always returns some form of blessing. Usually, just the joy of sacrificing for another.

Jesus' total gift of self as Son of Man and Son of God is a meditation that will go on for all of eternity as we grow from knowledge to knowledge in the Lord. It's impossible to comprehend the depth of self-sacrifice the Son of God has accomplished for us when he took on our human nature to free us from sin and death.

If we are to be his disciples, we are to follow him in this total gift of self toward our neighbor. Following Jesus through prayer and the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, will bring us to the depths of self-sacrifice where we will experience the true joy of God's love for us and for our neighbor. It is only in dying to self that we can rise in Christ Jesus our Lord.

From my heart to yours. . .

Msgr. Brian Donahue
