PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

BACCALAUREATE

Palm Sunday

Riding on a mule, the King of Heaven and earth enters the Holy City of Jerusalem on the way to His passion, suffering and death.

Imagine the emotions going through the person of Jesus at this time. He knows His hour has come and that soon He will fulfill the very reason He took on our human nature along with all of our sins. He is entering the epic battle of all eternity where He redeems all of humanity and all of creation from sin and death.

While He knows that He will be victorious, He still must conquer evil through His suffering, passion and death on the cross. He is the Son of God and the Son of Man, and as the Son of Man He is entering a physical, emotional and spiritual pain, suffering and darkness that is beyond human description. Who could endure this?

May we experience during this Holy Week just a small portion of the agony and suffering of Christ our Lord. May our tears help to soothe His wounds. May our repentance help to calm His soul. May our gratitude bring Him eternal joy. Hail to Christ our King!

From my heart to yours. . .

Msgr. Brian Donahue
