PASTOR'S CORNER

"...they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost."

There is a Latin phrase which describes our emotions, thoughts and feelings when we meet the glory of God. Mysterium Fascinandum and Mysterium Tremendum. The disciples were fearful yet overjoyed when they met the risen Jesus.

Mysterium Fascinandum means to be overcome with a joy beyond all imagining. Mysterium Tremendum is the experience of overwhelming littleness in the presence of the Almighty.

Jesus gave his disciples these experiences many times to encourage them and strengthen them. Even though these experiences have the effect of putting the disciples in an almost catatonic state, they also breathe new life in them. The new life of the resurrection!!!

We have this ability to witness this resurrection come alive in us every day since we are known as children of the Risen One! From my heart to yours. . . Msgr. Brian Donahue
