THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

Prayer on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

O Lord, your Baptism at the hands of St. John the Baptist shows us that you are not remote.

You are here. You are at our side. You know sin but are not a sinner.

Give us the grace to renew our original sacrament of baptism through a frequent reception of confession and the Holy Eucharist.

By receiving one we strengthen the others. By receiving you we receive God himself.

UPCOMING EVENTS

JAN 22 DAY OF PRAYER & PENANCE FOR UNBORN CHILDREN

MAR 4-5 REDEEMED WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

The Liturgy last week revealed the mystery of God’s plan—that in Jesus all peoples, symbolized by the Magi, have been made “coheirs” to the blessings promised to Israel. This week, we’re shown how we claim our inheritance.

Jesus doesn’t submit to John’s baptism as a sinner in need of purification. He humbles Himself to pass through Jordan’s waters in order to lead a new “exodus”—opening up the promised land of heaven so that all peoples can hear the words pronounced over Jesus today, words once reserved only for Israel and its king: that each of us is a beloved son or daughter of God (see Genesis 22:2; Exodus 4:22; Psalm 2:7).

Jesus is the chosen servant Isaiah prophesies in today’s First Reading, anointed with the Spirit to make things right and just on earth. God puts His Spirit upon Jesus to make Him “a covenant of the people,” the liberator of the captives, the light to the nations. Jesus, today’s Second Reading tells us, is the One long expected in Israel, “anointed . . . with the Holy Spirit and power.”

The word messiah means “one anointed” with God’s Spirit. King David was “the anointed of the God of Jacob” (see 2 Samuel 23:1–17; Psalm 18:51; 132:10, 17). The prophets taught Israel to await a royal offshoot of David, upon whom the Spirit would rest (see Isaiah 11:1–2; Daniel 9:25).

That’s why the crowds are so anxious at the start of today’s Gospel. But it isn’t John they’re looking for. God confirms with His own voice what the angel earlier told Mary: Jesus is the Son of the Most High, come to claim the throne of David forever (see Luke 1:32–33).

In the Baptism that He brings, the voice of God will hover over the waters as a fiery flame, as we sing in today’s Psalm. He has sanctified the waters, made them a passageway to healing and freedom—a fountain of new birth and everlasting life.

MASS INTENTIONS

The beginning of the year is a great time to request Mass intentions for the upcoming year (the earlier, the better for availability of dates). When making requests, please be sure to include your name and phone number to be reached if there are any questions, as well as any scheduling preferences (for example, “prefer Saturday Masses,” or “any day”). Feel free drop these in the offering basket or contact Heather at the office.

GREAT PLAINS MOBILE FOOD PANTRY

The mobile food pantry will come again to Hankinson on Wednesday, January 19 from 2-3 pm at the school bus barn, 415 1st Ave SE. This food from the Great Plains Food Pantry is provided free of charge to anyone in need.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS & FLOWERS

To all who helped decorate our church and to those who donated toward Christmas flowers, we thank you. We will be taking down decorations this Sunday, Jan. 9 and next Sunday, Jan 16, and volunteers are welcome. Also, if you would like to bring home the poinsettia with your name on the tag, please feel free to do so. Thank you again for your support.
