2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

CLP

Before I made the world, I loved you with the love your heart is experiencing today and,
throughout the centuries, My love will never change.

— Jesus, to St. Faustina in her Diary (1754)

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Believe that He loves you. He wants to help you Himself in the struggles which you must undergo. Believe in His Love, His exceeding Love.”

— St. Elizabeth of the Trinity

There is a saying in tradition that a wedding without wine is a funeral. We can only imagine the horror that the wedding family experienced in today’s Gospel when they found out that there was no more wine. The wedding was about to turn from a joyous occasion to the sadness of a funeral. Jesus’ turning water into wine can be experienced in many ways. Perhaps it can be an enduring sign of God’s love and joy that we are called to experience in our relationship with the person of Jesus.

Growing in our relationship with Jesus is a movement from darkness to light, from sadness to enduring joy. Each week we come together as the body of Christ to celebrate the Eucharist with one another. The experience of Jesus Christ in our souls ought to be an enduring sign of joy, happiness, and peace. Not as the world gives peace, but the peace, joy, and strength of Jesus Christ.

Perhaps we can pause and reflect each week prior to gathering as the body of Christ. To reflect on the joy of hearing the Word of God, contemplating that in the Eucharist, heaven has come to earth and invites us to enter the joy of the kingdom.

Msgr. Brian Donahue; from one heart to another :)
