5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." - Jn 8:6b-7

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

GLPI

"We can think of Lent as a time to eradicate evil or cultivate virtue, a time to pull up weeds or plant good seeds.
Which is better is clear,
for the Christian ideal is always positive rather than negative."

— Venerable Fulton J. Sheen

Fifth Sunday of Lent

"...not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God,..." Phil. 3

"Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders."
John 8

The wisdom of Jesus in this Sunday's story of the person caught in adultery demonstrates the difficulty we have in admitting our own sinfulness, especially when we are forced to face our own sins.

Jesus forced the elders and everyone with them to face and to admit their own sinfulness and unworthiness of salvation. Their initial intent to condemn the adulterer keeps at bay any reference to sin on their part. Jesus catches them in their own trap.

When it comes to the law, we all are guilty and worthy of death. Only by humbly confessing our sins and professing our faith in salvation through Christ are we made righteous for eternal life.

From my heart to yours...Msgr Brian Donahue

The Immanuel Lutheran Women's Bible Study Group is planning a Community Servant Event through Mercy Meals of North Dakota on April 30th from 1-3 pm at the Hankinson Community Center.

Mercy Meals is associated with The Orphan Grain Train and is a nonprofit organization providing humanitarian aid by packaging and shipping nutritional food products through volunteer efforts. Volunteers will package dry foods such as beans and rice to be shipped to places of need. They need help to make this a success.

If you are able to stand for an hour and help to package these bags of food, and you enjoy helping others, you are invited to come and assist. They need to know how many helpers they can expect to have the supplies available. Call or text DiAnn Milbrandt at 701-899-7976 or Cheryl Hubrig at 701-640-2689 and let them know what works for you, either from 1-2 pm, from 2-3 pm, or stay for 2 hours on April 30th.
