JUNE 25 & 26, 2022

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:61-62

FAREWELL FROM FR. SUND

This weekend, June 26th is my final weekend in the Parishes of Western Holt and Boyd Counties. It's hard to believe that I've been here for four years! I wanted to take a moment to express my gratitude to all of you for my time here. I pray that in some way I was able to bring Christ into your lives through my time in ministry here. I won't be too far down the road, and will likely see many of you at sporting events or parish events again. I've already received numerous cards and want to thank all of you for the kind send off dinners and lunches. May God Bless and remember to keep Jesus Christ first in everything!

— Father Sund

LIVE THE LITURGY

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us, "Follow me." Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn't heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come.

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM FATHER STARMAN

Dear Parishioners and Friends of the Catholic Parishes of Western Holt and Boyd Counties,

The road Jesus takes to Jerusalem is signposted with encounters, events, stopping places. This serves to universalize the way of discipleship; it has nothing to do with map reading or chronology, and everything to do with following Jesus in our own time and place. To help us along the way, Luke describes three encounters with would-be disciples. We hear the request, we listen to Jesus's response, but we learn nothing of the outcome of these meetings. It is as though, by this narrative silence, Jesus is saying to us: Listen to the answer your own life makes.

The first would-be disciple takes the initiative in approaching Jesus. He seems to be brashly confident, the enthusiast who needs to be tested for staying power, for readiness to be a powerless, homeless, and dispossessed disciple of a rejected Son of Man. Into Jesus's reply is woven the suggestion that in Roman-occupied Palestine everyone is at home except the true Israel. The "foxes" referred to are not just burrowing animals, but people like "that fox," Herod Antipas (Luke 13:32), who have dug themselves into politically secure positions. The "birds of the sky" were an apocalyptic symbol for the "roosting" Gentiles, the Romans who had disinherited Israel and now lord it over them. If you want to follow me, says Jesus, be prepared to be a powerless and dispossessed follower of a rejected Son of Man.

In the second encounter, it is Jesus who takes the initiative in calling the person to follow. We probably have a sneaking sympathy for this one who seems to make a very human and religious request of Jesus: "Let me go first and bury my father." But there is a cultural context to these words that persists even today in some Middle Eastern communities, and which throws a very different light on Jesus's demand. Sons were and sometimes still are expected to remain close to their family home at least until their father has passed away. In Jesus's invitation was the urgent and present call not to delay, not to put off the "today" demands of the reign of God. For all who answer the gospel call, there will be some contradiction of cultural expectations, some necessary reordering of priorities in our relationships. "Let the dead bury their dead" is Luke's literary device of exaggeration to emphasize the priority of Jesus's call. In no way does it deny the love for our parents that God explicitly commands.

The third would-be disciple wants to follow Jesus, but on condition that he is allowed to "first say farewell to my family at home." This seems a reasonable request, especially in the light of the first reading that describes how Elijah gave Elisha permission to go and say goodbye. But the following of Jesus has to be unswerving; not even this detour is allowed. The mini-parable of the plow explains further what is also Luke's literary device of exaggeration. The light Palestinian plow was guided with one hand, usually the left, while the plow's other hand carried a stick used to goad the oxen that pulled the plow. To make a furrow that was straight and of the right depth, to lift the plow over rocks that might shatter it, demanded great concentration and dexterity. To take one's eyes off the plow for a moment could spell disaster. So it is with his disciples, says Jesus. The eyes of our heart must be fixed on the reign of God with unwavering commitment so the field of this world may be well plowed and made ready for God's harvesting.

Ad multos annos!

ST. MARY'S UNIFORM EXCHANGE

Did you know we have a uniform exchange program for St. Mary's? We have many tables & racks of used uniforms, for all sizes and ages, now newly located downstairs in the St. Mary's Grade School. You simply drop off any gently used uniform items that could be worn by other students, and/or pick up what you need.

wish list

Would you like to be a wish-granter for our school and/or parish office? Contact Jennifer Wallwey for more information or just drop off money at the Parish Office. Be sure it is marked clearly where you would like it applied.

- Parish Office—Latte Kcups, Individual Creamers
- Maintenance Department—Contact the Parish Office
- Elementary School—AR Prizes ($240)
- Mrs. Schmeichel—"Of Mice & Men" PermaBond copies ($391)
- White Christmas lights to be used for school & parish events

JOHN NEWQUIST SCHOLARSHIP

Current college students, of any age, please consider applying for the John Newquist Scholarship! You can apply at johnnewquisteducationalfoundation.org
Deadline to apply for funds for the 2022—2023 School year is July 1st, 2022.

FORMED

The digital age demands that we go beyond the brick and mortar approach to reaching souls for Christ. As Pope Saint John Paul II proclaimed, we must expand the "ardor, methods and expression" to effectively spread the Truth of the Gospel. FORMED is your single source for Bible studies, sacramental prep materials, documentaries, and more. Leading Catholic experts help your parishioners grow in their faith and lead them closer to Christ through the Sacraments and the Gospel. FORMED has Seminars, Shows, Movies, Kids Shows, Podcasts and more! To get full access of these benefits, visit formed.org/ sign up and type in our zip code, 68763, to sign up for all of these amazing resources!

TOTUS TUUS

Totus Tuus starts this week! We are SO excited to bring this program back to our young believers again this summer!

The elementary program will run Monday—Friday from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm with the help of our missionaries and our high school and adult volunteers! Our elementary students are asked to bring a sack lunch every day as well as a refillable water bottle, but there will be snacks provided for the afternoon! On Wednesday (7/29) there will be a parish pot luck for all of our families! We encourage you to bring a main dish and a side or dessert to share, this is a great opportunity to bond and get to know everyone participating! On Friday (8/1), we ask that you send your child with a swimsuit or a set of clothes they don't mind getting soaked, as we have a fun filled water afternoon planned with root beer floats! This will be the final fun filled day for our Totus Tuus elementary program!

Our junior high and high school program will begin Sunday (6/26) and end on Thursday (6/30) with sessions running from 7:00 pm—9:00 pm. There will be snacks provided for our students, but they are asked to bring a refillable water bottle. Our JH & HS students are also encouraged to participate in the parish potluck Wednesday (6/29) with the rest of the elementary group. Thursday (6/30) will be the JH/HS final session where we will have a pizza party to celebrate the end of the program!

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who have donated, come out to help, and who have attended this year's Alumni weekend! This weekend wouldn't come together without everyone who pitches in! Again, thank you!
