OCTAVE OF EASTER

National Day of Prayer: The National Day of Prayer tradition predates the founding of the United States of America evidenced by the Continental Congress' proclamation in 1775 setting aside a day of prayer. In 1952, Congress established an annual day of prayer and, in 1988, that law was amended designating the National Day of Prayer as the first Thursday on May 6th, 2021.

reading of the Bible, and selfless loving acts of kindness, mercy and forgiveness enable us to abide in Jesus, the true vine, as fruit-bearing branches.

One hundred percent American? Today's gospel speaks of our radical dependence on God for everything. The vine to be fruitful has to be cut and pruned but remains always attached to the vine, or else it dies. "As a branch cannot bear fruit by itself, but must remain part of the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me." Often, we do not like to admit our dependence, but the fact remains that we are constantly dependent on others for our daily existence. "The average person might awaken in a bed built on a pattern which originated in the Near East, to a clock, or a medieval European invention. He slips into soft moccasins invented by American Indians. He showers with soap invented by the ancient Gauls and dries himself with a Turkish towel. Returning to the bedroom he dons garments derived from the clothing of nomads of the Asiatic steppes and in ancient Egypt. At his breakfast table, he has pottery invented in China, and his knife is made of an alloy first produced in southern India; his fork is a medieval Italian invention, his spoon a derivative of a Roman original. His food originated in discoveries from all over the world. He reads the news of the day imprinted in characters invented by the ancient Semites, by a process invented in Germany upon a material invented in China. Sometime during the day, he may thank a Hebrew God in an Indo-European language that he is one-hundred percent American." - (Harold Buetow).

Let us remember; we are united to the Vine of Jesus always.

Love and Peace,

Fr. Karl

Pastor's Reflection

Dear Parishioners,

Today's scripture selections emphasize the need for Christians to abide in Christ as a condition for producing fruits of kindness, mercy, charity, and holiness.

The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles testifies to the abundance of spiritual fruits yielded by the apostles because of their close bond with the risen Lord. It tells us how the Lord pruned the former Saul of Tarsus, the fanatic Pharisee who had persecuted the Church, to produce a fruit-bearing branch called Paul, the zealous Apostle to the Gentiles, and shows us how Paul is entirely dedicated to the proclamation of the gospel. Even Paul's forced return to Tarsus for a brief period is an example of God's pruning of the vine to bring forth a greater harvest, namely, the mission to the Gentiles. In today's second reading, taken from the First Letter of John, John explains that only if we remain united to Christ by putting our faith in him and drawing our spiritual strength from him will we be able to obey God's commandments, especially the commandment of love. In the Gospel, Jesus uses his favorite image of the vine and branches during his Last Supper discourse to help his disciples understand the closeness of their relationship with him and the necessity of maintaining it. They were not simply rabbi and disciples. Their lives are mutually dependent - as close as a vine and its branches. In fact, in using this image, Jesus was explaining to them and us what our relationship with him should be like.

Life messages

1. We need pruning in our Christian life: Cutting out of our lives everything contrary to the spirit of Jesus and renewing our commitment to Christian ideals in our lives every day is the first type of self-imposed pruning expected of us. A second way of practicing pruning is practicing self-control over our evil inclinations, sinful addictions, and aberrations. Cordial mingling with people of a different culture, race, religion, and orientation in our neighborhood and society enables us to prune our selfish and prejudicial tendencies and adjust ourselves with others in the society with Christian charity and openness. Jesus prunes, purifies, and strengthens us by allowing us to face pain and suffering, contradictions, and difficulties with the courage of our Christian convictions.
2. Let us abide in Christ and let Christ abide in us: The four Gospels teach us how to become true disciples of Jesus and how to abide in him as branches abide in the main trunk of the vine drawing its life from it. Personal and liturgical prayers, frequenting of the sacraments of the Holy Eucharist and reconciliation, daily and meditative
