A CATHOLIC COMMUNITY INVITING PEOPLE TO FOLLOW CHRIST

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 1, 2019

From the USCCB weekly parish bulletin insert.*

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that it is in our service to those among us who are poor and vulnerable that we will be made righteous (LK 14:12-14). Low wage jobs contribute to a high poverty rate in many of our communities. As we approach Labor Day, we reflect on our call to live and act in solidarity with many in our workforce who struggle to make ends meet.

Catholic teaching tells us that not only are workers due a "just wage" with which they can provide for their families' needs; they also deserve opportunities for rest and dignity affirming benefits such as quality health care and paid time off. In addition, work should be something that enhances one's human dignity (see Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church, nos. 284, 287, 301, 302). This is a major focus in this year's Labor Day statement from the USCCB Chairman of the Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development.

The experience of many workers in low wage jobs tells us that we must give serious consideration to how we can address areas of inequality in our economic systems. We are called to prioritize the well-being of the human person over the capital they produce (see St. John Paul II in Laborem Exercens, no. 12, on "The Priority of Labor"). In our country today, corporate consolidation of wealth and power in monopoly organizations has led to lower wages for workers. Lower wages means many workers cannot sufficiently provide for their families or fully participate in the economy and society (see St. John Paul II in Centessimus Annus, no. 48).

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the "Bishops' Program for Social Reconstruction," a document released in 1919 that provided several recommendations for rebuilding America's politics, society, and economic system. In this document the Bishops concluded that "the full possibilities of increased production will not be realized so long as the majority of workers remain mere wage earners." How can we empower workers whose dignity and rights are not fully recognized? One way to do this is by supporting those organizations and business that promote employee ownership. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development funds several cooperatives and other employee owned projects that help low-wage workers to achieve fair wages, stable employment, job training opportunities, and better benefits. •

Catholic teaching holds that central to promoting the dignity of work and rights of workers is building solidarity with and among workers. The Church has long looked towards the important role played by labor unions in the effort to protect the needs and rights of workers in situations of inequality and injustice (see Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church, no. 305). As we seek to build greater solidarity with those workers in our community fighting for their rights, how can you show greater support of and involvement with the work of these labor unions?

VISITATION OF THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND + We at Holy Angels Church, St. Mary's Church and St. Isidore's Church are most eager to help anyone who cannot celebrate Mass with us because of illness, handicap or age. If you wish to receive the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Reconciliation and are unable to leave your home, please call the office at Holy Angels 485-8214 or the office at St. Mary's, 372-3284 and your request will be given to a priest. . If you are aware of any parishioners who are hospitalized or homebound, and desire to receive the Sacraments, please notify either office and we will get the message to a priest. Thank you for helping us look out for all of our parish families. IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY . . . In case of an emergency where there may be a need for a priest when the offices are closed, please call Kari Janz at 218-565-8158 or Rose Mascarenas at 218-391-6388 and a priest will be called immediately for you.

PRAYER BLANKETS

Members of St. Ann's get together and make blankets. During the process of turning fabric to blankets special prayers and rosaries are prayed around a blessed votive candle. These comforting blankets are then blessed by our parish priest. The blankets are available to anyone who needs to be covered in prayer in cases of illness, death of a loved one, or other problems. If you have a need or know someone who has need of a blanket contact Kari at 218-485-8214 or Rose at 218-372-3284.

FORMED

FOR THE ADULTS:

Lectio: Prayer Session 1: Prayer

Prayer is one of the most basic elements of a life of faith, but sometimes it feels like a one-way "conversation." Dr. Gray shows how the solution to this problem can be found in the Scriptures.

FOR THE KIDS:

The Legends of Robin Hood

The child of a reputable family and a faithful son of the Church, Robert of Locksley had no intention of becoming an outlaw. But the relentless cruelty by the nobility of England demanded that someone rise up to give answer.
