Gospel Reading

Matthew 2:1-12

The Magi seek out Jesus and do him homage.

The tradition of giving gifts at Christmas is thought by some to be rooted in the gift giving of the Magi. In many cultures, gifts are not exchanged at Christmas, but rather on the feast of the Epiphany. Whenever you exchange your Christmas gifts, take some time to reflect on this tradition of gift giving at Christmas. Think of the best gift you have received. What was it? What made it special? Was it the gift itself, the thought that went into it, or the person who gave it to you?

Read today's Gospel, Matthew 2:1-12. The gifts of the Magi—gold, frankincense, and myrrh—have come to be understood as symbols of Christ's royalty, divinity, and eventual suffering and death. They are special because in giving them, the Magi acknowledge who Jesus was to be: our Savior. We pray that we will acknowledge Jesus as Savior in all that we do and say. Conclude by singing together "We Three Kings."

UCA: Thank you for Your Support,

but we still need more help to meet our goal!

Our UCA assigned goal is due by December 31. Holy Angels is almost there to meet its goal. We are way behind with St. Mary and St. Isidore parishes. As shared briefly at last Sunday mass at St. Isidore, I appeal we all consider donating a significant amount directly to UCA. That will help our parishes to not be responsible to pay the deficit from its savings. It also helps the Diocese finance office have a fair allocation into the coming year from the total revenue income of all the parishes within the Diocese. Any additional contributions received within the Calendar year if ever we supersede our goal, is always applied to the goal assigned to the parish for the following year! Thank you for your generosity! Fr. Francis-Pastor.

CONFESIONS - If you are interested in going to confession during the week, you may let Fr. Francis know and he will be happy to hear your confession after daily Mass or by appointment. He will be doing Confessions on First Friday's and Saturday's at 4:00 p.m. at Holy Angels.
