Welcome

We Welcome You Wherever You Are On Your Journey

Gym Masses

President: Fr. Jim DeBruycker

"There's No Place Like Home!" SJA welcomes you back as we begin a new year of worship services, family mass and ministry programming! Thank you for a special presentation by JP Fitzgibbons and Cynthia Bailey Manns and for the welcoming music of our musicians-Tommy Barbarella, Dik Hedlund, Peter Johnson, Fred and Anna Vagle and Lee Vague. "Home is where the heart is...and our hearts are at home with you!"

Family Masses

Welcome home to Family Mass! Our family-centered Masses are at 9:00am and 11:00am in the church. With the gospel of the lost sheep who comes home to an always waiting God, we hear from The Boy, The Mole, the Fox and the Horse about the meaning of home as love. Don't miss the opportunity to come together as families to grow in faith and community. See you in church!

Pastors 2 Cents: From Fr. Jim DeBruycker

In psychoanalytic theory, the story of Adam and Eve is the story of humanity coming to consciousness. Once we could differentiate 'me' from 'us', the world was never the same. The Greek philosophers actually believed we were once a whole and the gods split us into male and female. In both instances the result is a longing to be one again and regain Paradise, or wholeness, to go home again.

In his novel, You Can't Go Home Again, Thomas Wolfe reminds us we can't capture the past and return to it unchanged. You change and the world changes and we have to adjust to it. To try to do otherwise can lead to disappointment or disaster...at the very least. I recently went to my 50th College reunion. It was fun to reconnect with people I have not seen in thirty years in many instances. On the surface there was a lot of banter that sounded like the 'old days' but underneath was the realization we are not the same people. The trauma, the drama and the experiences of life have changed us. We came together to visit something that once was but is no longer. I longed for more time to discover these new people.

Wow! This is way too philosophical a musing on the concept of 'Welcome Home Sunday.' We are glad to see you after the summer hiatus of travel, camp and cabin and the beginning of a new school year blending into another holiday and liturgical season. At my first parish, Saint Peter's in Mendota, when I was much more liturgically inclined, I designed a whole welcome back for the Christmas program. We had special services planned and great Christmas card-like graphics...and it was a complete disaster. "What's home about this place?" was a number of people's responses. I didn't do my homework; there was a whole list of Catholic resentments. To call something home doesn't make it home.

Can you go home again? No. But you can create a new home. I saw this a lot during the AIDS epidemic. I often ended up working with two different families with the same person, their birth family and their gay family. With luck and time sometimes we could blend the two together, but not very often. To many, the gay family where they could be themselves, accepted and nurtured, was this family of peers--their new home. Home is where your heart is.

So, welcome back to this manufactured home where we will celebrate some old familiar stuff while recognizing that your journey has changed you and challenged you, and made you more interesting. Let us nurture and enrich each other for another season. As always, we welcome you wherever you are on your journey and hope you feel at home.

Recycle: Please use the labeled receptacles for compost, paper, glass, plastic, cans, waste and cups. By doing so we will be ecologically responsible and a big help to our maintenance staff as well. Thank you.
