On this Father's Day, one of our own Dads and long-time SJA musician, Steve Kremer, and Mariella Elm, a member of SJA's youth ministry will offer musical solos. A senior this fall at Groves Academy, Mariella is president of the school choir and involved in all theater productions. She sings with MacPhail Community Youth Choir and Angelica Cantanti Treble Singers. In August, Mariella and her dad, Tommy Barbarella, will be presenting a staged reading of their original musical, "The Girl Who Cried Different." Thank you and welcome all!

Pastor's 2 Cents: From: Fr. Jim DeBruycker

In the seminary I wrote a paper on black Catholics and the civil war. As you have probably guessed the American bishops were split like the country over the issue of slavery. There were a number of bishops who supported a 'just slavery' stance or suggested that emancipation take place gradually so the blacks could learn how to live free responsibly. Interestingly Rome was way ahead of these bishops and declared there was no moral justification for American slavery. In a local American council after emancipation and the civil war the bishops admitted emancipation was a good thing but should have been done gradually.

Hopefully that sounds as crazy to you as it does to me. Whenever the power structure tells you that you should receive freedom gradually so you can live it with responsibility they are really saying we are having a hard time letting go of our power and control. The patriarchy likes to pretend they are a beneficial parent only looking out for our own good when in reality it's their power they are protecting. We see this happening all around us right now on a variety of issues concerning racial discrimination, women's rights, and LGBTQ rights to name a few.

We are not supposed to bring up these issues because it might disturb our young people's psyche. We cannot admit that each of us carry inner tapes taught to us by our culture that have to be laid bare to finally end our hatreds and prejudice. As a youngster I was taught to lock the car doors and roll up the windows when we drove through the Selby-Dale area. Don't look at 'those people' as we drove through the neighborhood. We were indoctrinated with these myths and they don't go away unless you expose them.

The Gospel this week tells us how the kingdom gradually grows bit by bit until it will finally come to fruition. It is the story of hope, we can get there we can build a better world. We have evidence of this all around us, from the strides made in racial equality, women and LGBTQ rights to the incredible advancements made in medicine in the fight against cancer, AIDS, and other infectious diseases. There is hope in this world. But there is more to be done.

I know I am preaching to the choir but we must be vigilant. We need to keep hope alive. There are many out there who are repeating the old patriarchal mantra. You are going too far too fast we need to tell you how to live. Really?

Make Someone's Day! Studies have shown that the power of even a smile has long ranging effects on the mood of not only the recipient of a smile, but the sender as well! Improve someone's mood this week, as well as your own, by 'committing' random acts of smiling!

LGBTQ+ Church and Group News: So much happening!

- LGBTQ+ Book Club: Will meet on Tuesday, June 18 at 6:30 at Gabe's Bar & Kitchen in St. Paul. Our book this month is Self-Made Man a 2006 book by journalist Norah Vincent, who recounts an 18-month experiment in which she integrated into traditionally male-only venues (including a bowling league and a monastery) disguised as a man.
- SJA LGBTQ+ Pride Week Prayer Service will be held on Wednesday, June 26 at 7pm in the Church. This is a beautiful evening of stories and prayers, with special music from our SJA favorite guest, Ann Reed! Please join us to give thanks for the gifts of our SJA LGBTQ+ community. Sunday, June 23, SJA favorite Harley Wood starts off Pride Week at our Gym Masses.
- TC Pride Festival will be Saturday and Sunday, June 29 - 30, and we will again be part of the Downtown Churches booth in Loring Park. If you'd like to volunteer to be a welcoming presence at the booth, contact Julie Madden for available shifts.

SAGES Funeral Planning Workshop will be held on Thursday, June 27 at 7pm in Hospitality Hall. Please join the SJA pastoral care staff who will guide us through the SJA Funeral planning process, including the liturgy, eulogies, music, the Memorial Garden, church set-up, hospitality and support. Funeral Pre-planning Guide and Funeral Guide booklets will be provided. All are welcome. RSVP at the SJA Parish Center at 612.823.8205.

Tickets Going Fast! Get your tickets today for Arm in Arm in Africa's Together We Can fundraiser on Monday, July 15, at Sociable Cider Werks. Jennifer Grimm headlines this special night of celebration, entertainment, and prizes.

The program starts at 6pm. Tickets from as low as $65 are available at aiaia.org and include all food and beverage. Proceeds fund Arm in Arm's work in Food, Healthcare, and Education in South Africa. Thank you for your support!

Wedding Policies: Weddings at St. Joan of Arc are provided as a service to members of the parish community. For a wedding to take place at SJA, it is necessary that one of the engaged couple be a registered member of the parish for at least six months before a wedding date can be set. A date can only be scheduled by one of the priests after an initial interview with the engaged couple. A minimum of six months from the time the date is set to the wedding is necessary in order to complete requirements. In cases where there has been a previous marriage ending in divorce, it is not possible to set the wedding date until notice of an annulment is in hand. FFI contact Cathy Anhut at canhut@stjoan.com.

Parishioner Registration: If you are looking for a church home, we would love to have you join us! Registration forms are found in the Parish Center office or at the Church entrance. If you have any questions, staff at the front desk can assist or you can email or call Diane at dhaugesag@stjoan.com; 612.823.8205, x238. We welcome you wherever you are on your journey!

We Celebrate Anna and Wish Her Godspeed! On Sunday, June

30, join us in the gym at 7pm as we offer a farewell in music and stories to our Music & Liturgy Director Anna Vagle, who is retiring as of that day. There will be laughter (and tears) as we offer Anna and Fred our gratitude for all they have shared with this community for 50+ years.

Choir Members are invited to join the joyful noise on Sunday, June 30 at the gym masses. Arrive at 8am, find your place on the risers and we will warm-up! FFI contact avagle@stjoan.com or call 612.823.8205 ext 235.

The SJA Concert Board is looking for a volunteer to join the marketing team to assist in marketing and copywriting for the 2024-2025 season and beyond. Interested in applying your skills to support live music performances in our community? Contact Peter Donohue at padonohue@donohuenovakatlaw.com.

Mobile Loaves Twin Cities needs new women's and kid's crew and anklet socks. Please place your donations in the collection hamper in the Parish Center.

Food Shelf Donations Needed: We continue to accept non-perishable food items for Sabathani Community Center. Most needed items are cereal, water and sports drinks, laundry detergent, and toilet paper. Items can be dropped off in the bins in the Parish Center on Sundays, or Monday thru Friday, during regular hours. Thank you for your willingness to help those in need.

Recycle: Please use the labeled receptacles for compost, paper, glass, plastic, cans, waste and cups. By doing so we will be ecologically responsible and a big help to our maintenance staff as well. Thank you.

Collection Envelopes: If you receive collection envelopes from SJA that you don't use we'd be happy to take you off the mailing list - saving us money and cutting down your recycling. Please email or call Diane at dhaugesag@stjoan.com or 612.823.8205 ext 238, and she'll remove your name from the mailing list. Thanks for your help.
