21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We hope you have enjoyed celebrating with us. Whether you are new to the area or have lived here for years, you are invited to join our parish family. We are three parish communities that make up the Communion of Saints Catholic Community. If you are a visitor from out of town, we hope you feel welcome in our church as your "home away from home."

FROM FR. BRIAN

Going on a Venerable Fulton Sheen kick on YouTube for the summer! I will put the different videos up on the website to watch. It is a playlist for a Family Retreat the encouragement would be to gather the family to watch the video (20-40 minutes) once a week! I will put some of my own ideas and thoughts in the bulletin too.

10/12 Wasting Your Life is the name of the video! Let us not waste our life!

Work hard, at everything in our life with God and His Church, Family life, work! We have more than enough to give! Generosity is the word! As our saintly quest and relationship with God grows, our energy level grows from the source of love. If those quests end then our energy ends because we are finite. Learning to be generous with your life, so much more than financial giving.

To be broken for others is your entire life! This is love! We need to love others to live. As we love, we will be broken as Our Lord was.

Believe the Incredible and you can do the impossible!!

ST. ANN'S PARISH CENTER

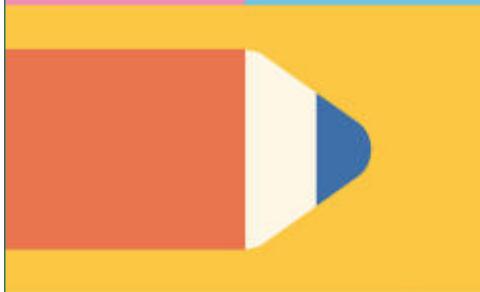

Thank you for your amazing generosity and for creating a place of fellowship and community for the faithful people of St. Ann now and for generations to come. Work continues as more concrete was poured outside the building this week.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

"Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods." We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these "gods" because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with "who is God" and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised "more." But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only "feels" true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God's kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It's a choice we all have to make. ©LPI

INFORMATION FOR YOU

All Saints Parishioners: A basket at all Masses in August will be available for free-will donations to purchase a tent for the Fall Festival. Thank you for your support!

St. Ann's CCW will meet Wednesday, September 15, at 6:30 PM in the new Parish Center. All St. Ann women are welcome to attend and participate.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal is August 28-29. Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet those needs. An envelope is provided for this appeal in your annual box from the parish if you wish to give a gift. Please make checks payable to your parish NOT the specific organization. More information can be found at: www.usccb.org/home-missions.
