340 Cedar St. P.O. Box 231, Chadron, NE

June 13, 2021

11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.”
- Mk 4:30-32b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Hello!!

As you read this we will be on the road heading to One Bread One Cup in St. Meinrad, IN. Please pray for us as we will pray for you. Our Youth will learn more about Catholic liturgy as they rub shoulders with the Benedictine Monks.

Today's Gospel says to me that nobody is insignificant. Each of us can do great things in ways we may never realize. If we approach life with the intent of helping others know God big things can happen in small ways.

Peace and all good things.

Fr. Todd

LIVE THE LITURGY - Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a mustard seed, the tiniest of seeds. When planted, the tiny mustard seed grows into a tremendous tree with large branches.

So too in each of our lives small things can have profound effects. God can use one of our more insignificant gestures to radically change another person's life. It may be the kindness of a smile, our willingness to accommodate someone, listening to someone's story, helping someone who is hurting, standing up for someone who is right or complimenting someone on something they did. We all have God given gifts and talents. What are some of yours? Our task is to use our talents creatively, consistently, lovingly, and generously. Because we are always guided by the Holy Spirit, things that may be insignificant or unnoticed to us can profoundly change the life of someone else. While we may think we are small and insignificant, God can make us large and magnificent. All we have to do is open ourselves to being used. We trust that God will take care of the rest. ©LPI
