15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

LIVE THE LITURGY: God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are just simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and construct buildings where people could come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked. ©LPi

Lectio Divina

Question:

What is Lectio Divina, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11?

Answer:

Benedict desired his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life.

There are variations on Lectio Divina, but essentially, the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime). Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others? ©LPi

Hello!!

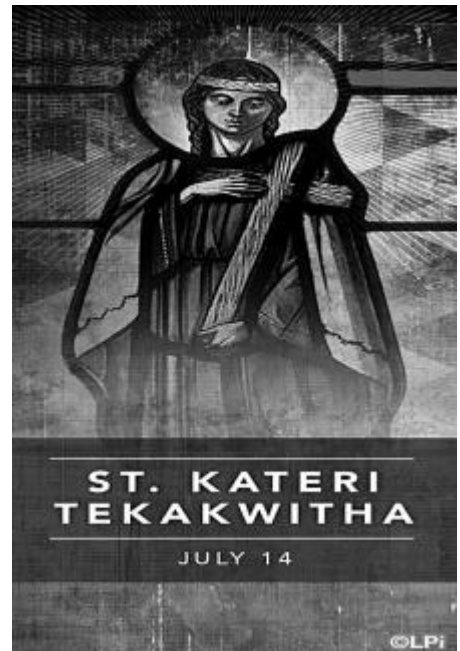

I feel a new sense of freedom and I feel like the world is opening up these days. It was a great day for me when I received my covid vaccine. For me it helps if I have something to look forward to. During covid I looked forward to the time I could have an open house for my Parish family. I got some new carpet in my house. The washer and dryer in my house which are original to the house had reached the end--I have some new appliances. I like where I live, I feel comfortable in my house and enjoy hosting folks in my house. I want to share the new developments in my living space.

Next weekend I hope you can come to my house (343 Cedar St.) after mass. Today's Gospel says some things about welcome and being together. An appropriate message for an upcoming open house.

Thanks for getting your option responses in to our office. One part of the plan that I think is so good is that if we move forward with construction and remodeling parts of the Assumption Academy building would be incorporated into a remodel/construction. The stone Archway that was once the main entrance to the school would be preserved to greet future visitors to our campus for years to come.

Enjoy these days of summer. May faith and hope grow and recreate in us during these days of recreation.

Peace,
 Fr. Todd
