RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up.

Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand. God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for.

He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

Anointing Mass

Mass with Anointing of the Sick will be held on Wednesday, July 28th at 12:05 p.m. This will be the only mass that day.

Anointing of the Sick Q & A

Question: If it isn't only for people who are dying, when should someone receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

Answer: One of the unfortunate realities in the Church today is that so few people understand the meaning and value of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, largely because so many people still mistakenly think of this sacrament as "Last Rites" or "Extreme Unction."

In his life and ministry, Jesus healed the sick. In this sacrament, the Church continues the healing mission of Jesus and, in hope, prays that God will grant healing to the person who is suffering. But even if there is no physical healing, the sacrament offers spiritual healing through the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage. And so, anyone who is living with serious illness (including emotional or psychological illness) and the elderly are encouraged to celebrate this sacrament when it is needed. The ritual for Anointing of the Sick does also include special prayers and blessings for those who are facing death, including viaticum (communion given to the dying, trusting that the Lord Jesus will be their companion along the way, as they make their final journey). ©LPI

Music Ministry

Calvary Cemetery

Please note that decorations on the grass need to be removed in the week following memorial day. Decorations must be attached to the base of a monument or in an attached flower planter. Shepherd's crooks must be mounted on the concrete base of the monument. Decorations not mounted on the concrete base of a monument can damage mowing equipment and are subject to removal.

The Shroud of Turin: Spirit Catholic Radio is bringing to St. Mary's Cathedral in Grand Island an up-close experience of the most studied artifact of all time – The Shroud of Turin, what many believe to be the authentic burial cloth of Christ. Their newest traveling exhibit, The Man of the Shroud, will include 42 beautifully-designed panels on display in the Parish Hall from July 23 – July 30. On July 28, at 6:30pm, Shroud expert, Jim Bertrand, M.Ed. of the American Confraternity of the Holy Shroud, will give a special presentation and a rare viewing of a Shroud replica. For more information, visit spiritcatholicradio.com/shroud.

Please remember in prayer those who have died, especially Philip Stack, father of Rob Stack.

From Father Todd

Hello.

Thanks for your response to our survey on the future planning and dreams for our Parish Campus. We will continue to study the surveys and communicate the results to you. As I have read through them I gather that there is a preference to move forward with some sort of remodel and construction. We will continue to plan, dream and communicate. I think it is good that we provide a space that is a comfortable, safe and beautiful to call our Parish family home.

I wanted to share with you the quote that I read from Fr. Ron Rolheiser during my homily last weekend. We hear the voice of God in the everyday. We discern the voice of the Good Shepherd as we move through life.

- The voice of God is recognized both in whispers and in soft tones, even as it is recognized in thunder and in storm.
 - The voice of God is recognized wherever one sees life, joy, health, color, and humor, even as it is recognized wherever one sees dying, suffering, conscriptive poverty, and a beaten-down spirit.
 - The voice of God is recognized in what calls us to what's higher, sets us apart, and invites us to holiness, even as it is recognized in what calls us to humility, submergence into humanity, and in that which refuses to denigrate our humanity.
 - The voice of God is recognized in what appears in our lives as "foreign," as other, as "stranger," even as it is recognized in the voice that beckons us home.
 - The voice of God is the one that most challenges and stretches us, even as it is the only voice that ultimately soothes and comforts us.
 - The voice of God enters our lives as the greatest of all powers, even as it forever lies in vulnerability, like a helpless baby in the straw.
 - The voice of God is always heard in privileged way in the poor, even as it beckons us through the voice of the artist and the intellectual.
 - The voice of God always invites us to live beyond all fear, even as it inspires holy fear.
 - The voice of God is heard inside the gifts of the Holy Spirit, even as it invites us never to deny the complexities of our world and our own lives.
 - The voice of God is always heard wherever there is genuine enjoyment and gratitude, even as it asks us to deny ourselves, die to ourselves, and freely relativize all the things of this world.
- The voice of God, it would seem, is forever found in paradox.

~ Ron Rolheiser
