The 17th Sunday in Ordinary time

How to Deal with Stress and Tension in Our Lives! A one-day retreat will be held on August 7th at Saint Benedict Center in Schuyler, with Father Joe Miksch.

"Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they?" (Matthew 6:25f)

By learning a few basic concepts with lots of practice and placing our trust in the Lord Jesus, we can eliminate much of the stress we face in our daily lives. This retreat offers encouragement for the journey. – Social distancing will be observed, wearing a mask is recommended. Register at www.StBenedictCenter.com or call (402) 352-8819.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer: Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule:
go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope...
But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities.

Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward.
Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions.
Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is.
It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people. ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Early in their Exodus journey, the Israelites expressed fear and frustration to Moses. God heard and responded to their "grumbling" by sending bread from heaven. When you have you experienced God answering your plea for help?

Second Reading: Paul told the Ephesians that as believers in Christ you should "put away" the bad parts of "your former way of life." How have you done this in your life as a believer in Christ?

Gospel: We hear today the introduction of Jesus' extended "bread of life" discourse. In referring back to the ancient Israelites who ate "manna" (bread) in the desert, Jesus tells the crowds: "I am the bread of life." How would you explain to someone how Jesus sustains you? ©LPi

Hello!!!

It is great to see folks coming back to Church after this long pandemic. I think it is important for each of us to invite and encourage. Do you know someone who you work with, perhaps a family member who you can invite to join you for mass? St. Pat's is a living and thriving place. It is good for us to be together.

Liturgical Ministers be sure to make checking the ministry schedule a part of your routine. We are gearing up our ministries. Be sure to check the schedule and get a sub if you cannot be present. It is good to have our ministries up and going!!!!

I have scheduled our first Story Night.

I invited twelve Parishioners to gather together and simply tell their story. Each of us has a story. To tell our story and to receive another's story is a gift. God's story can be reflected in the story of another. I heard about Story Night from a Campus Minister at Notre Dame. A Priest who serves the Notre Dame Campus is famous for story nights. Story Nights are a raging success on the Notre Dame Campus. The Priest invites students to share their story and of course there is pizza involved. I have experienced Story Nights in my work with College Students. I have had wonderful experiences with Story Night. I can't wait to experience the gift of story with our Parishioners.

We are planning for some fall Theology on Tap Sessions and a Parish Busy Person's Retreat. Stay tuned.

In today's Gospel Jesus encourages the folks to see the Bread they take as something that is life giving--bread from heaven. How easy it is to lose sight of what is truly important and lifegiving. Today's Gospel reminds me of the expression that I once learned at a Parish Mission--The main thing is to keep the main thing the main thing!!!!

Peace be with you!!

Fr. Todd
