From the Pope's Pulpit and the Pastor's Pen

From the Pope's Pulpit

In every age, peace is both a gift from on high and the fruit of a shared commitment. Indeed, we can speak of an "architecture" of peace, to which different institutions of society contribute, and an "art" of peace that directly involves each one of us. All can work together to build a more peaceful world, starting from the hearts of individuals and relationships in the family, then within society and with the environment, and all the way up to relationships between peoples and nations.

Message for the 55th World Day of Peace, January 1, 2022

Message for the 55th World Day of Peace, January 1, 2022

From the Pastor's Pen

A blessed New Year to everyone! We look forward to the new year with the light of the newborn Christ.

Among others things this year, I look forward to our parish debt going down as commitments to our See the Possibilities capital campaign continue to go up. My thanks to everyone who has already made a commitment and I warmly invite everyone else to consider joining us as we secure our past, enhance our present and embrace our future.

As Catholics we are part of a greater whole that goes beyond the confines of our parish. For years our pastoral council and I have been wanting to develop a sister parish relationship with a parish in the third world. St. Thomas More Parish, where I grew up, has had a sister parish in Guatemala for over 30 years. I am pleased to share that we are taking the first steps to find a sister parish as well. Early in February a group of parishioners, accompanied by Father Angel, will be making an exploratory visit to Guatemala. We still have some space available for this. If you are interested in joining this group, contact Tressa at the Parish Office. Finding a sister parish is something else I look forward to this new year.

A safe and blessed 2022 to everyone!

Father Joe Cisetti

STAFF COLUMN - DEACON DOUG WARRENS

Three P's – Planning, Praying, and Preparing

First, I want to wish you all a very Happy New Year!

I have three separate ideas I want to share with you in this article.

Planning – as a reminder to an article I wrote a few weeks ago, I want to mention that you can ask to PRE-PLAN the spiritual side of your funeral, no matter how soon or hopefully how far away that might be. This is a great gift to your family and will help you feel like the important components of your spiritual life are included in your funeral Mass (the readings you like or the music that is familiar to you.) You can call me in the office to set up an appointment and I can help you through the process.

Praying – Our catechumens and candidates in the RCIA program are preparing and discerning to come into the Catholic Church at Easter. Please keep them in your prayers! They continue to study on Thursday nights and I am sure they would appreciate the prayerful support of our parish!

Preparing – In the next few weeks you will see information in the newsletter and the bulletin about a new study program we will be launching called "Discovering Joy and Freedom Through the Ten Commandments." This program can be enjoyed by individuals, families (including children), or in small groups. It uses the Ten Commandments as its core and St. Thomas More Parish has developed it locally and is now launching it nationally. Be Prepared, as the Scout Motto tells us and keep your eyes open for more information to come!

Campaign Prayer

Loving God and Father, we praise you and thank you for all the many blessings you have bestowed upon us, our families, and our parish.

Open our eyes to See the Possibilities for the future of our parish. May we grow as an ever more faithful parish family encouraged by one another, attentive to your word and nourished by the Eucharist.

May we offer with gratitude our time, talent, and treasure to secure our past, enhance the present, and embrace our future. With lives of intentional faith may we See the Possibilities every day, in every little way.

Through the intercession of St. Therese, may we receive the grace to sacrifice today for the promise of tomorrow.

We pray all this in the Holy Spirit through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Catholic Charities

Marie's New job- I know it may not seem like a big deal, but it is HUGE to me. I was working with Catholic Charities and their employment services on my resume. They helped proofread my spelling and grammar. We worked on my interview skills... and I found a job! don't mind the work; I like to clean, and I like the feeling of leaving something clean and fresh. I also don't mind working alone, which I will for the most part. I like to get right down to it and get the job done.

Will this be my job forever? I don't know. I can't say, "I don't care" because I really do care. I am so thankful for the job and the chance to earn my own living.

Exercising Stewardship of God's Gifts in the New Year

Stewardship of Prayer: Nothing is more important than cultivating a closer, deeper relationship with God. Make a new commitment to a time each day to listen to God's voice.

Stewardship of Family: How often in our busy lives does time with family get cut short? Resolve to find a special time with each family member each week. Make sure that family meals are celebrated frequently. Plan a special family outing once or twice a month, and go to Mass together. Resolve that when your spouse and child speak, you will look at them and truly listen.

Stewardship of Health: Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. Without good health, we lack the energy to serve the Lord well. Resolve to make that doctor or dentist appointment. Make one healthy change in your eating habits. Add a few minutes of extra exercise to each day's routine.

Stewardship of Possessions: Want less. Live more simply. Do you own your possessions, or do they own you? Challenge yourself to sacrifice something you like but that you know another person needs more than you.

Stewardship of the Parish Family: Offer your service to the liturgy or a ministry of your parish in the New Year. Enrich your parish and your parish experience by becoming involved.

Stewardship of Money: Take charge of your budget and your checkbook. Reprioritize your financial goals to ensure that the Lord is coming first in the expenditure of your wealth. Plan your spending and don't spend reactively or impulsively.

Stewardship of Work: Do your best at your chosen profession. Be honest and faithful. Resolve to find a class or other forum that will strengthen your knowledge and expertise. Bring a prayerful attitude to your job.

Stewardship of Mind: Resolve to read something regularly that enhances your faith life. Resolve to learn more about your faith and especially Catholic social teaching.

Stewardship of Neighbor: Be aware of those around you, whether it be your co-workers, fellow parishioners, neighbors, restaurant workers or store employees. Everyone needs a smile and Christian kindness.

Stewardship of the Poor: Resolve to interact with the poor in some specific way this year. Resolve to choose a time and place to minister to the poor in some way. Bring them into your prayer life as well.

Happy New Year, St. Therese!

Jesus Is Watching You

A burglar broke into a home and was looking around. He heard a soft voice say, "Jesus is watching you."

Thinking it was just his imagination, he continued his search. Again the voice said, "Jesus is watching you."

He turned his flashlight around and saw a parrot in a cage. He asked the parrot if he was the one talking and the parrot replied, "Yes."

He asked the parrot what his name was and the parrot said, "Moses."

The burglar asked, "What kind of people would name a parrot Moses?"

The parrot answered, "The same kind of people who would name their German Shepherd Jesus."
