From the Pope's Pulpit and the Pastor's Pen

From the Pope's Pulpit

Among the vulnerable for whom the Church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenseless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity and to do with them whatever one pleases, taking their lives and passing laws preventing anyone from standing in the way of this. Frequently, as a way of ridiculing the Church's effort to defend their lives, attempts are made to present her position as ideological, obscurantist and conservative. Yet this defense of unborn life is closely linked to the defense of each and every other human right. Precisely because this involves the internal consistency of our message about the value of the human person, the Church cannot be expected to change her position on this question. I want to be completely honest in this regard. This is not something subject to alleged reforms or "modernizations". It is not "progressive" to try to resolve problems by eliminating a human life.

The Joy of the Gospel

From the Pastor's Pen

My thanks to everyone who participated in our annual vigil of life. I am grateful for your support in the deeply important work of building what St. John Paul II called a culture of life. Our starting point is with what is right about human life—that it is made in the image and likeness of God with a dignity that is always to be respected. When we see what is right, what the values are, we can then more clearly see what is wrong, what the anti-values are. There are four building blocks to a culture of life: legal advocacy, direct assistance to those in need, education and underlying all this, is prayer. Respecting human life in all its forms, born and unborn, is not about imposing a religious agenda. It is about civil rights. It is about human rights. Like racism, and so much other evil, disrespect of human life can become embedded into a sinful structure and into legal systems where what is wrong is taken for right and those who question it are considered troublemakers or worse.

STAFF COLUMN - ERINN BROWN, DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

HAPPY NEW YEAR, St. Therese! I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and New Years. Most of our celebrations have looked a little different over the last year and a half. We were incredibly excited to be back in person for our 2022 auction only to be thrown slightly off course with a rise in covid numbers and a need to reschedule for later this spring. It takes a village to put these types of events together to make them successful and currently our village is under the weather. Your health and safety will always come first. We want to make sure that we ALL are able to come together, in celebration, and make it the best night of the year. We hope you plan to join us Saturday, April 2 for Bourbon Street Bash!

We do still have a need for auction items. Do you have any connections domestically or internationally - a hotel or apartment for a week's stay? Timeshare in a cool (or hot) location? Connections to local restaurants willing to give gift certificates? Know of a local chef willing to cook a gourmet meal in a private home? Is a themed basket your thing? We'd love it! We need it all! Donate an item and help make this the most successful auction yet!

The Auction Committee looks forward to sharing more details and opportunities with you in the coming weeks including several raffle drawings you don't want to miss out on! Mark your calendars and get ready for the event of the year celebrating our incredible community - See you there!

The victims of this disrespect of human life are not limited to the unborn or to others who have lost their lives. Mothers, fathers and others can come to regret what has happened and it's important to remember that God's love is greater than any sin and that God's forgiveness and healing waits for us in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. For many years, there has been a healing project for post-abortive women called Project Rachel. This ministry offers hope and forgiveness in a non-judgmental and confidential atmosphere. Its purpose is not guilt but healing. More information is available at: www.projectrachel.kc or by calling 816.591.3804. A culture of life will always be a work in progress. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, may we always be up to that work in every way. My thanks too to everyone who participates in Eucharistic Adoration at our parish. In the midst of all the many activities that take place here, it is good to know that there are also people spending time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. I see this as a type of undergirding of all those activities. We are always looking for more people to participate in this work and would like expand our hours. If you are interested please contact Monica Arrendondo at: eucharisticadoration@sttheresenorth.org Due to the pandemic uptick, our annual parish auction has been moved from February 26 to April 2. Please pray for our suffering world as we continue to journey through this struggle. Finally, in case you haven't noticed, the days are getting longer. In less than two months spring will be here.

Father Joe Cisetti

Heading into 2022 there is so much to celebrate! Thank you, again, to all the families who have made their pledge to our capital campaign. We are at 79% of our overall $6 Million See the Possibilities Campaign goal with a total of $4,720,100 pledged.

We encourage all families to join in this important campaign for our parish. Please pray about how you can participate and make your pledge as soon as possible. Our campaign offers a wide range of gift opportunities to participate at all levels. You may choose a plan that provides you with flexibility and time to complete the payment of your pledge. For example, you may make a pledge now and pay it in year 2 or 3. Sometimes it's easier to divide it up over the 3 years and break it down by week. We encourage you to complete your total pledge commitment by December 2024.

Please grab a campaign envelope on your way out today! We look forward to celebrating the complete success of this campaign with you in the near future. THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT AND GENEROSITY!

The Ten Commandments

Are the Ten Commandments obsolete? Or, are they still relevant? God gave us the Ten Commandments because He wants what is best for us, for our families and our relationships. Come rediscover how the Commandments are relevant every day and they give us the foundation for building strong families and close relationships. On Wednesday, February 2nd at 7:00pm in the Wooldridge Center, lay evangelist Ed Van Buskirk of If U Love Me will share how the Commandments lead us to abundant joy, authentic freedom and into close relationship with Jesus and with one another. Ed will share with us how this course can be a self-led journey, or you can create a small study group to participate with together. You can use materials to work through a class with your children. There are different ways you can go forward. This course was developed here in Kansas City and our St. Therese Parish has made it available to you. Below is a link to hear what other people have thought about this course: <https://vimeo.com/661975198> If you only had one last chance to ensure success for the children in your life, what would you say to them? More importantly, what would God want you to say? <https://ifuloveme.org/preview-course> Put this on your calendar now and invite a friend to come with you.
