We have returned to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. You will notice that a noble simplicity has returned in the church decorations and the ceremonies of the Mass. This season does not highlight any particular mystery of salvation. Rather, we reflect upon the events of the life and ministry of Jesus as the Gospel of Mark, starting next Sunday, is proclaimed in more or less continuous fashion until the beginning of Lent.

The refrain from today's Responsorial Psalm should be the bold response of any Christian to God's will. It represents the response that any young person should be willing to give who is discerning a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life.

Regarding human dignity, today's Second Reading reminds us that, having been baptized into Christ's body, our bodies, too, are sacred and temples of the Holy Spirit. Saint Paul is writing primarily against sexual immorality here. However, all sins against another's person, especially deliberately depriving another of life, are offenses against human dignity and against the Precious Blood of Christ with which he has purchased us as his own.

The annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins this Monday, January 18, and ends the next Monday, January 25, the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul. This year's theme is taken from John 15:1-17: "Abide in My Love... You Shall Bear Much Fruit." Here, Jesus reminds his disciples that he is the vine and we are the branches. If we abide in him, in Jesus and the Covenant made in his precious blood, we will be such a healthy branch as to bear much fruit, abundant grapes.

Jesus manifests this in his references to loving one another: "Abide in my love." This love of Christ figuratively speaking is akin to the healthy sap that nourishes the vine throughout all its branches. Jesus the man is lovingly begotten into human society by the love God has for all human beings, through the cooperation of a human woman, the Virgin Mary. In return, humanity is repeatedly raised from sin to justification by the love of Christ, the only Son of God, one with the Father and the Spirit through all the ages. This resource for abiding in his love is endless.

The image of branches helps believers understand that they are all diverse as individuals, but brought together in the one Vine, who is Christ alive in the Church. It can also point out, in these times of growing ecumenical witness, that the differing expressions of Christian faith are also branches which cannot live on their own and still authentically proclaim the Gospel to all creatures. We preach Christ crucified and risen to a needy world, that the world may have hope. Separately, that "sap" which keeps all the branches healthy, gets stuck in blocked veins of animosity, distrust, bigotry and ignorance. Only open veins will allow the sap to flow. Only then can all the branches bear much fruit.

This coming Wednesday, January 20, will be Inauguration Day for President-elect Joe Biden. As American Catholics we would do well to pray for him and for our nation, especially for a peaceful transition of power. The Church has always encouraged prayer for civil leaders, going back to Saint Paul himself: "First of all, then, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity." (1 Timothy 2:1-2) Saint Peter also encourages respect for civil authority: "Give honor to all, love the community, fear God, honor the king." (1 Peter 2:17)

Pray the Rosary this week for the unity of Christians, and for the unity of our nation. Pray also for Deacon Timothy Reither, a seminarian from Saint Charles Parish, as he continues his vocational discernment and formation.

May God bless his people with peace.
Monsignor Gorman

EVENTS

CHRIST OUR CORNERSTONE CAMPAIGN

Thanks to all who have made a gift or pledge to the Christ Our Cornerstone Campaign to restore the steeple and facilitate other restorations to St. Joseph the Workman Cathedral. Presently, more than $1.3 million has been pledged from diocesan parishes, clergy, and Cathedral parishioners to restore our magnificent Cathedral! These faithful gifts, combined with the generous match from St. Ambrose Financial Services, bring the total up to more than $3.9 million toward our goal of $6.1 million! If you have not yet had the chance to make your pledge, now is the time to act. Please join your fellow parishioners and those from across our diocese by participating in this historic campaign. All families within our Diocese are invited to participate. Please know that while one-time gifts are appreciated, everyone is encouraged to consider making a three-year pledge. There are several pledge plans available in the brochures available at the church or by visiting cathedralsjworkman.org/cornerstone. Pledges can be made online there or by using the pledge cards found within the brochures available at church. Thank you for your kind assistance in this historic endeavor. It is only together as one that we can truly do great things. Please go to cathedralsjworkman.org/cornerstone to see a video which shows the extent and urgency of what needs to be done.

The first question that Jesus asks in John's Gospel is, "What are you looking for?" He is speaking to John's disciples as they follow after Him, desiring to know who Jesus is and what His mission is all about. After the disciples respond, Jesus gives them an instruction, "Come and you will see!" Whether we can hear it or not, that same question is being asked to you. What are YOU looking for? So often we find ourselves searching, not knowing exactly where to go or what to do in life. We seek things that will hopefully fill the emptiness and longing that we have in our hearts, but nothing seems to satisfy. The real answer to this can be found in Jesus' response as He invites each of us to follow after Him, to get to know Him, and to follow the path He has placed before us. For some men, that path is a very special invitation to walk in Jesus' footsteps as a priest. If you or someone you know is interested in discovering more about this call to the priesthood, please contact Father Nate Kuhn, Vocation Director, Diocese of La Crosse, PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602-4004; or by phone at 608-791-2667. God bless you!

Knights of Columbus Council 974 will be praying the rosary before the 5:30 PM Mass on Monday, January 25, 2021. starting at 4:45 PM. If you would like to add intentions, please contact John Rider at 715-225-6511 or at john.rider930@gmail.com.

Knights of Columbus Goldsmith Council 974
Novena for Life

A novena is a period of sustained prayer over nine days for a particular intention. Community members are encouraged to pray in their homes on each of the nine days of the novena. The particular intention of this novena is life, conception through natural death. The protection of life is a sustained prayer intention of the Catholic Church and of the Knights of Columbus. A Novena for Life is meant to bring Knights of Columbus and parish families together in a spiritual battle to lead their communities, through both public and private acts of prayer, to ensure a culture of life in our nations. All members of the community are welcome to join us!

Dates: Starts January 21 and ends January 29, 2021, the day of the March for Life in Washington.
Questions: Tony Willkom (715) 306-0345

The Gospel of Life prayer cards will be available after each Mass this weekend. This Novena is a great start, but just a start. The Knights encourage you to pray for life at all its stages every day.

JANUARY 22 DAY OF PENANCE AND PRAYER

The Catholic Bishops of the United States have decreed that January 22, the anniversary of Roe v. Wade, is to be observed annually as a day of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion, and of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life. Texts appropriate for this observance will be used in Friday's Mass.

The destruction of the unborn child has always been particularly abhorrent in the eyes of the Church and, until recently, to all of humanity. Physicians, taking the classical Hippocratic Oath, swore not to give a woman a drug to induce an abortion. The ecumenical consensus among Christians prior to 1973 was to oppose abortion. Canon law reinforces the Catholic Church's disdain for abortion by attaching an excommunication to all involved in a completed abortion. Lost in all pro-abortion rhetoric and legislation is the humanity of the unborn child. More recent scientific knowledge has affirmed that the unborn child can feel pain, and can respond to sounds from outside the womb such as music or his or her parents' voices. One of the best abortion deterrents is the ultrasound, where the unborn child can be seen as a living, moving human being. In fact it was observing the ultrasound of an abortion procedure that brought about the conversion of at least one Planned Parenthood employee, as recounted in the movie Unplanned. I find reprehensible legislation that blocks such information from being made known, as though it is all right to conceal the true nature of abortion in order to make it easier for a woman to go through with it. Perhaps the most fundamental reason abortion remains as acceptable as it is is the denial of the reality of what it actually is: the deliberate killing of a living child before birth. The truth remains: "Abortion stops a beating heart."

Many pro-life people were disheartened at the election of Joe Biden and Kamala Harris, who have vowed to enshrine in law the so-called right to abortion. Even more disheartening was the encouragement of President Trump for his supporters to march on the capitol when the election was to be certified by Congress. Whether or not he expected that to turn violent and even deadly, it was wrong and a betrayal of his supporters and the pro-life cause in particular for the President to encourage defying the constitutional process for certifying the election. While the President may have been within his rights to contest the results of the popular vote, he should have accepted the rulings of the courts that upheld the integrity of the election. There comes a time when a gentleman must graciously concede defeat and cooperate with the transition of power.

All eyes will be on Washington this week for the inauguration of President-Elect Biden. Let's pray that it happen peacefully. There is no excuse for any protest for any issue to turn violent. The challenge will be for President Biden to make good on his promises to heal and unify, and to be president for all Americans. We can only hope that he will come to realize that includes unborn Americans as well.

May God bless his people with peace.

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter's Patter

Hello from the 3rd- and 4th-grade classroom. We hope you had a wonderful week!

This week in Religion the 3rd and 4th graders read the story of the birth of Jesus. We read about John the Baptist, the last prophet, and how the new king wasn't what the people were expecting their Savior to be like.

In Math the 3rd graders continue to plug along learning about division. This week we studied how multiplication and division are related, and also began memorizing the basic division math facts. The 4th graders continued to work with fractions. We practiced finding the simplest form of a fraction and also how to find a common denominator of a group of fractions.

In Science we read about ecosystems, why they are important to our planet, and how we can be good stewards of the earth and take care of them. In Wisconsin History we read about Wisconsin becoming a territory and then a state on May 29, 1848. We also made statehood booklets highlighting some of the activities people would have participated in at a statehood celebration, the foods they would have eaten and also what the citizens of the new state would have worn to such an event.

Have a good week!
