MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

YOU ARE MY BELOVED SON

Monsignor
Michael J. Gorman

The Christmas season concludes today with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. As narrated in today's Gospel, God the Father himself attests that he whose birth we have been celebrating is in fact God the Son become man. We have heard this truth announced by angels to shepherds, signified to the Magi by a star and heralded by John the Baptist. Jesus' baptism was to mark the beginning of his public ministry. Incorporated into Christ and into the Church through our baptism, we too are God's beloved and are commissioned to proclaim the Good News with our lives.

St. Hippolytus, a third-century priest and martyr, reflects with amazement on the fact that Jesus should be baptized by John the Baptist. At the same time he does not want us to miss the significance of our baptism. Here are some excerpts of his sermon on the Epiphany.

The Father of immortality sent his immortal Son and Word into the world; he came to us men to cleanse us with water and the Spirit... Let peoples of every nation come and receive the immortality that flows from baptism. This is the water that is linked to the Spirit, the water that irrigates Paradise...this is the water by which a man receives new birth and life, the water in which even Christ was baptized, the water into which the Holy Spirit descended in the form of a dove...Whoever goes down into these waters of rebirth with faith renounces the devil and pledges himself to Christ. He repudiates the enemy and confesses that Christ is God, throws off his servitude, and is raised to filial status. He comes up from baptism resplendent as the sun, radiant in his purity, but above all, he comes as a son of God, and a coheir with Christ.

Jesus' baptism would mark the beginning of his public ministry. The baptism we received is the baptism with the Holy Spirit that John predicted would succeed his baptism of repentance. (Gospel) It is through this baptism that we became God's children by adoption, "born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God." (John 1:13) From this flows our ministry as members of the Body of Christ: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

With the conclusion today of the liturgical season of Christmas, we begin tomorrow the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This season does not celebrate any particular aspect of the Paschal Mystery as do all the other seasons of the liturgical year. Rather, Ordinary Time is characterized by an ordered reading of the gospels—the meaning behind the name. On weekdays we begin with the gospel of Mark, then Matthew in the summer and Luke in the fall. On Sundays this year we follow the gospel of Luke, after a transitional passage from John's gospel next Sunday. The First Readings on weekdays are ordered readings from the other books of the bible, alternating between the books of the Old Testament and the epistles of the New Testament. On Sundays the First Readings are from the Old Testament and correspond in some way to the Gospel of the day, while the Second Readings are ordered readings from the epistles of the New Testament with no particular relationship to the First Reading or the Gospel.

Pray the rosary this week for people lacking shelter from winter's cold, whether in our own community, or those who have lost everything due to the derecho from Arkansas to Kentucky or the wildfires in Colorado; and, as always, pray for peace.

May God bless his people with peace.
Monsignor Gorman

What Are You Looking For?

The first question that Jesus asks in John's Gospel is, "What are you looking for?" He is speaking to John's disciples as they follow after Him, desiring to know who Jesus is and what His mission is all about. After the disciples respond, Jesus gives them an instruction, "Come and you will see!"

Whether we can hear it or not, that same question is being asked of you. What are YOU looking for? So often, we find ourselves searching, not knowing exactly where to go or what to do in life. We seek things that will hopefully fill the emptiness and longing that we have in our hearts, but nothing seems to satisfy. The real answer to this can be found in Jesus' response as He invites each of us to follow after Him, to get to know Him, and to follow the path He has placed before us.

For some men, that path is a very special invitation to walk in Jesus' footsteps as a priest. If you or someone you know is interested in discovering more about this call to the priesthood, please contact me:

Peter's Patter

Happy New Year from the seventh and eighth grades.

Our Christmas vacation left us refreshed and ready to dive into a new year. The students began the year thinking about their goals for 2022.

In Religion class, they read The History of St. Peter School-Tilden, a short history as told by Mrs. Cathy Bohl. They learned some interesting facts about our school!

During math time, algebra students wrapped up a chapter in which they learned about graphs and functions. Next up: linear equations. Prealgebra students are nearing the end of their math chapter learning about solving equations with fractions.

During science class, the students began a chapter about electrical charges and static electricity. They've experimented with electrical attraction and repulsion and have a better understanding of static electricity.

The "Festival of Nations" has become a hot topic in the classroom. This week the students started the project by choosing the country they'd like to learn more about. They will now spend the next couple of months looking for lots of interesting information about the country so they can write a paper and make an impressive display that you all can view on April 9-10, 2022, in the church basement.

In Reading and Language Arts, the students have been busy. In reading class, the students began the novel Cheaper By the Dozen, based on a family of 12 children that lived in the early 1900s. In Language Arts, identifying adverb clauses has been challenging the students.

Finally, the fifth-eighth grade students began preparing for the Scripps National Spelling Bee. So far they have taken a written test and participated in an oral bee in each of their classrooms. Next, the top spellers will compete to be the top school speller and will then compete at the regional level. Wish them luck!
