MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

YOUR WORDS, LORD, ARE SPIRIT AND LIFE

Today's First Reading describes an ancient "Liturgy of the Word." As Ezra prepared to read from the scroll of the Law—the most sacred part of the Old Testament scriptures—he held it up for all to see and the people rose out of respect. As he blessed God they replied with an acclamation, "Amen, amen!" As Ezra read from God's word, he also explained it. This parallels the proclamation of the gospel—the most sacred part of the New Testament scriptures—at Mass. The Book of Gospels is held up and carried in procession while the congregation stands out of respect. "Alleluia" is our acclamation along with "Glory to you, O Lord" and "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ." Once God's word is proclaimed, it is also explained.

Today we begin a more-or-less continuous reading of the Gospel according to Luke, the primary gospel for this year's Sunday readings. Today's Gospel begins with an introduction which is dedicated to a certain Theophilus. It is possible that Theophilus was a benefactor who had commissioned Luke's work. The name Theophilus (Θεόφιλος) means "friend of God." Is it not also possible that it is dedicated to each of us who are friends of God?

After this introduction we jump ahead three chapters to the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. Here Jesus applies a passage from Isaiah to himself, affirming that he is the Christ—that is, the Lord's anointed. Having celebrated the Christmas mystery as the birth of the Messiah, we now begin to reflect upon what this means by listening to the accounts of his ministry and of his preaching.

The Spirit of God is emphasized in the writings of Luke. The Spirit of God is also emphasized in today's Second Reading, as Paul reminds us that "in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body...and we were all given to drink of one Spirit." In this one Spirit, received in baptism and confirmation, we become truly "Christians"—that is, anointed ones.

The annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity concludes this Tuesday, January 25, the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul. This year's theme is: "We Saw the Star in the East, and We Came To Worship Him." This is the explanation of the theme: "Like the Magi who braved the perils of a long and dangerous journey to find the Christ child, our Christian brothers and sisters in the Middle East face many hardships as they strive to live out their faith in Christ. Our prayer in solidarity with their suffering is a light of hope and communion."

On September 30, 2019, in a motu proprio entitled Aperuit illis, Pope Francis designated the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time—that is this Sunday—as the Sunday of the Word of God. The timing of the document is significant: September 30 is the memorial of Saint Jerome, the man who translated most of the Bible into Latin, and who famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." The title of the document, Aperuit illis, is equally important. They are its opening words, taken from St. Luke's Gospel, where the Evangelist describes how the Risen Jesus appeared to His disciples, and how "He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures."

Catholics are often accused of being unfamiliar with the Bible. In reality Catholics should be more familiar with the Bible than any Christians for a number of reasons. First of all, the Catholic Church assembled the Bible as we know it today, determining which writings should be included as the inspired word of God. Secondly, so much of the Bible is proclaimed during the Mass in the course of the liturgical year, with a three-year cycle of readings on Sundays and a two-year cycle on weekdays. Finally, we have two thousand years' worth of commentaries which reflect the living tradition of the Church from the first Christian century down to the present day. If Catholics are not familiar with the Bible, it's our own fault!

Remember that this weekend we are taking up a second collection for people affected by recent storms affecting neighbors in Stanley and fellow citizens to our south and in Colorado. Whatever is collected will be divided 30% to Stanley and 70% to Catholic Charities USA. Any checks should be made payable to your parish.

Pray the Rosary this week for an end to legalized abortion and the many other crimes against human life and dignity, for the unity of Christians, for people affected by natural disasters and, as always, pray for peace.

May God bless his people with peace.

myParish App Communication

Greg Gilbertson A great way to stay updated on all things St. Charles and St. Peter is the myParish app. This is a free smartphone app where you'll find our calendar of events, including Mass times, religious ed and sacramental prep schedules, bulletins, daily readings, special messages and a lot more.

St. Charles and St. Peter each have their own versions of the app, and you can toggle between each parish. You can also integrate the parish calendars into the default calendar app on your phone.

Last week I encouraged us all to get involved in parish life. This app is a great way to know stay updated on parish activities and opportunities.

Simply go to your App Store on your phone and search for "myParish App" or tap the myParish icon on the St. Charles/St. Peter portion of the city-wide faith formation website.

DTS for January 23 is happening due to the La Crosse Diocesan March of Life pilgrimage cancellation. So high schoolers come and enjoy a dynamic talk, social time, supper, and sports. DTS meets at 6:00 PM at the Goldsmith Religious Education Center (GREC), across the street from Notre Dame Parish.

Next weekend, January 30, all students in grades 8-12 are invited to a special edition of DTS which will include a "hooding ceremony" to enroll student participants officially into the DTS. MACS Chaplain Father Ethan Hokamp will be presiding.

Feast of Blessed Brother James Miller – Feb. 13

A native of Stevens Point and a De La Salle Christian Brother and missionary, Brother James Miller was gunned down while repairing a wall at the school where he worked in Huehuetenango, Guatemala on Feb. 13, 1982. He was declared a martyr and beatified by Pope Francis on Dec. 7, 2019. He stands as an example of fidelity to the Gospel and humble and fearless service on behalf of the poor and the vulnerable. You would make a great priest

Do you know someone in your life who you think would make a good priest? Have you ever told them? If not, you should! A significant, contributing factor to young men discerning the priesthood has been the invitation and encouragement they receive from others, particularly parents, teachers, mentors and role models. Don't be afraid to tell a young man that they would make a good priest, as that may be just what they have been waiting for. Once you encourage them, don't hesitate to put them in contact with me to continue the conversation. I can be reached at:

Jesus says, "Tell the words of God to those who have never heard it." Tell others that God loves and forgives them. The best way to tell is to show the word of the Lord by your actions. Hand a Band-Aid to your injured brother. Talk instead of hitting someone when you get angry. Say "I forgive you," when your sister hurts you. Let others play with your toys. Share your favorite candy bar.

PRAYER

Open the eyes of others to your love and forgiveness, Lord.

Hello, from the second, third and fourth graders.

Even though we had a short week of school due to professional development days, we still were quite busy. In Religion, the second graders are studying the Our Father prayer. We are breaking it down into smaller parts and looking more closely at what those parts mean. In third grade Religion we are reading about the early years in Jesus' life and about his baptism in the Jordan. The fourth graders are reading about how we are all given an invitation to heaven at our baptism and by following the Ten Commandments we are able to stay on the correct path to be able to get there someday.

In Math, the second graders are working on adding three-digit numbers while the third graders are still memorizing their basic division facts. The fourth graders are working on a chapter where they are adding and subtracting fractions.

In Social Studies, we wrapped up a unit on the government. We learned about the three branches of government, what each branch does and their leaders.

Reminder that next Sunday, January 30, St. Peter School will be hosting an open house to kick off Catholic Schools Week. Tell your friends, family and anyone with school-age children to come and check out our wonderful school. Registration materials will be available for the upcoming 2022-23 school year.

Have a great week!
