12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"
The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them,
"Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

WHO IS THIS WHOM EVEN WIND AND SEA OBEY?

Msgr. Michael J. Gorman

The episode in today's Gospel of Jesus rebuking the wind and quieting the sea ends with the disciples asking the question, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" Today's First Reading gives us a clue to the answer to this question as God proclaims to Job that he alone governs the forces of nature. The answer is given in the very first verse of Mark's gospel: "The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God." The rest of Mark's gospel, then, should be read with this in mind: Jesus is the Christ, the long-awaited Messiah or Anointed of the Lord; and he is the Son of God, whom we know to be God the Son, the second Person of the Blessed Trinity, become man. This affirmation is something that the disciples in Mark's gospel never quite make. As Mark portrays the disciples, they never quite get it. Perhaps Mark intended to show how much they were changed by their experience of the Risen Lord. The only explicit affirmation of Jesus' divinity in Mark's gospel comes from one of the centurions who witnessed his crucifixion: "Truly this man was the Son of God!" (Mark 15:39) Apart from that, for Mark it is the power Jesus demonstrates in his miracles and the authority with which he speaks that form the basis for our profession of faith in him.

The Bishops of the Milwaukee Province, comprised of the five dioceses in Wisconsin, have decreed an increase in the recommended offerings for weddings and funerals: $100 for weddings and $75 for funerals. This represents an increase of $25 in each case. They have also decreed an increase in the offering for a Mass intention from $10 to $20. Both of these go into effect on July 1. This is not retroactive so that offerings already given are not affected. Personally I believe this increase in Mass offerings is excessive and unnecessary. All offerings for sacraments and Mass intentions are freewill offerings and may not be refused regardless of the amount. In our diocese the offerings for sacraments go into our respective parishes' fund for works of charity and are used for that purpose. Mass offerings go to the priest who offers the Mass and are considered part of the priest's compensation in addition to his salary.

Some may wonder what has happened to the prayer to St. Michael the Archangel we have been saying at the end of Mass. This was a practice requested by Bishop Callahan. Our new Bishop Battersby is not requesting it. I have decided to discontinue it because it is usually prayed with the Rosary and other prayers said before Mass. Praying it after Mass is not only repetitious, but seems to imply that St. Michael is more powerful than the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass which has just been offered. Like the Rosary this prayer is a private devotion and more properly belongs outside of and before the Mass.

June 30 marks the end of our fiscal year, which is only a week away. As you can see from the financial report on page 5 of the bulletin, we are inching toward our goals for the Diocesan Annual Appeal. We are within $4,600 of our goal at St. Charles and $1,215 at St. Peter. With more donors coming through in these final weeks, especially those who have not yet given, we can certainly reach our targets. Any other special end-of-the-year contributions will be greatly appreciated to help us meet our financial obligations. Thank you for your generous support of our parishes.

Pray the rosary this week for Father David Nowicki, the new priest ordained for our diocese yesterday, June 22. He will become the new associate pastor at Holy Ghost, Notre Dame and St. Bridget on July 2. Pray for Father Ethan Hokamp and Father Brandon Guenther, who will begin new assignments that same day: Father Hokamp in Tomah and Father Guenther in Prairie du Chien. Pray for the seminarians studying for our diocese and, as always, pray for peace.

May God bless his people with peace.
Monsignor Gorman

"...he brought them to their desired haven."

Alexis Wislinsky

A theme in my current season of life reflected in our Scriptures today is this: God wants us to know Him as provider. It sounds simple, but like so many other things, we forget to lean on Him as the only one who can provide us with what we need. We entertain an illusion of self-sufficiency that is sometimes only exposed when something like suffering or tragedy brings us to our knees. Christ is the Alpha and the Omega. All things were created through Him; as we hear in the second reading, new things have come from Him. This "newness" is the opportunity to be born of Spirit and Truth, to live in perfect harmony with our Creator. We can't grasp this on our own. It's gift, freely given and on us to accept.

One other point: it's also easy to feel like the list of what we need is endless. Our culture promotes this idea through every available channel. No matter your income, this nagging feeling can prey upon you. But Jesus wants us to remember that all who are heavy-laden with burdens can find rest in Him. He will bring us to our desired haven. True peace is found when we let go of comparison and anxiety and listen to His words as He speaks them into our hearts.

Today, let's pray to the God who both formed and calms the sea for trust in His identity as a good Father who provides for us, His beloved children.

Pax,
 Alexis

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage (NEP)

One of our own, Dominic Carstens, son of Christopher Carstens who is the Diocesan Director of Sacred Worship, is a perpetual pilgrim walking the entire pilgrimage on the Seton Route. Pilgrims are accompanying Jesus from city to city, lighting hearts on fire along the way with all four branches of this historic Pilgrimage converging in Indianapolis for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Over 30,000 people have registered for the Congress, which will be held July 17 - 21, 2024. For further information and stories about the Pilgrimage, visit <eucharisticpilgrimage.org>. The disciples of Jesus had a very scary night, because their faith was not very strong yet. They were crossing the sea in their boat, just as Jesus asked them to do, when a huge storm came up. Their boat was filling up with so much water they thought they would all die. When they woke Jesus up he simply spoke to the wind and the waves, and the storm stopped completely. Now they were really scared. Who was Jesus, anyway? The wind and waves listened to him!

ST. PETER CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN MOTHERS

stcharles-cf.com/christian-mothers

Over the next few weeks, we will share more information as we follow the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage to Indianapolis, Indiana, for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress July 17-21.

Last week I stated that we are part of the Marian route from the north. The Marian route is named for its visit to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion, formerly Our Lady of Good Help. This is the first and only approved Marian Apparition site in the United States. This is fitting, because the very first Eucharistic Pilgrimage was made by our Blessed Mother who traveled with the Body of Christ growing in her womb. Just as Mary followed Jesus perfectly throughout his earthly life, pilgrims will journey closely with Our Lord from May 2024 to July 2024. This information from the website <https://www.eucharisticpilgrimage.org>.

As of Thursday, June 13, pilgrims are in the presence of Jesus in the Diocese of Green Bay. This website allows you to keep track of where the pilgrimage is on any given day. There is a map that will show you the routes for the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Route (East), St. Juan Diego Route (South), and the St. Junipero Serra Route (West). Even if you were not able to attend the Answer, you have an opportunity to be a part of the pilgrimage virtually. When Jesus gave us the gift of the Eucharist, he gave us a new way to walk alongside him.

Are you looking to grow in holiness? Join us Monday nights at 6:30 p.m. to pray the rosary and Our Mother of Perpetual Help Novena.

St. Peter School Homeschool Hybrid Meeting

In order to support and serve more Catholic families in our community, we will have a discussion about the possibility of a hybrid option for homeschooled children in grades 1-8 utilizing the space and faculty of St. Peter School. We invite anyone interested to join us on Wednesday, June 26, at 10:00 AM, in St. Peter Church basement to discuss this possibility. Contact Janelle Dachel if you have any questions: <dachelj@stpetersschooltilden>.

Congratulations to Michael Herron and Margaret Bohl who were the VFW essay contest winners this school year.

Shin-Dig | July 21 | Mass 10:00 AM

We ask that each family sells at least six books of Shin-Dig raffle tickets. Additional sales are appreciated. Thank you. Sold raffle tickets can be handed in using the collection baskets at Mass. If you are in need of additional raffle tickets, they are available at all Church entrances, or contact one of the Officers. There are tickets in the parish office for sale as well.

Items Needed: Please be thinking of the cakes you would like to create for the cake walk. Be on the lookout for items for the children's raffle, teen raffle, and Silent Auction. The most popular items for the Country Store are craft items, fresh produce, pies and other baked items. Donations can be dropped off by contacting one of the officers. Please keep selling those raffle tickets! Thank you!

Shin-Dig posters: Posters are available at all Church entrances. Please feel free to take one and put it up at your place of business and wherever you think appropriate. Please be sure to ask permission.

Pavilion Cleaning: Recycling of aluminum cans, plastic bags, and ink cartridges will not be accepted until after the Shin-Dig. Thank you!

Workers schedules: Schedules are available at all Church entrances. We are still looking for volunteers to work at Shin-Dig so all shifts are covered. If you or a family member are not scheduled and are able to work please contact one of the officers.

THANK YOU!

The family of Paul Schemenauer would like to sincerely thank Father Kren and Deacon Rider for the comfort they brought Paul during his final days and the beautiful funeral service that ushered him into the waiting arms of the Lord.

We would also like to express our gratitude to St. Peter Parish family and the surrounding community for your support of Paul all during his relentless battle with cancer. Thank you for the countless cards of encouragement, concern, love, laughter, your time, generosity, even tears and oh so many prayers.

Paul was overwhelmed and humbled, he expressed a desire to spend the life he had left paying it forward, sadly that wasn't meant to be but take comfort in knowing that he is praying for all of you now and in your own time of need.

God bless you!
