Parish Mission

St. Francis of Assisi Parishioners of Nixa, Missouri, being open to the workings of the Holy Spirit, are called to be a welcoming community formed around the Eucharist, a people of prayer serving their faith through their principle of Christian stewardship.

Living the Liturgy

The one who came from heaven now returns to heaven. Today celebrates the completion of the Divine-human story. When God became one like us, humanity was divinely kissed. The message was clear: mortal human beings, once seen as insignificant and expendable, radiated with the presence of God and revealed the intimacy of the Divine Mystery. The poor were raised up and given dignity, the sick healed, and justice proclaimed. The human story is understood as a partnership, a true and new covenant, celebrating a love relationship between all created beings and things and their Creator. Jesus now sits at the right hand of the Father as the Christ of God. In this ascended state, we see what we are all meant to become and have before us the transformed life that awaits all of creation. While we are still moaning and expressing sighs of incompleteness as we continue our journey, we see and know the glory that awaits us and the inheritance that will one day satisfy the longing of our souls. This feast of the Ascension is truly a celebration that can bolster our faith, deepen our love and renew our hope.

Commissioned & Sent

Have you heard the Good News? If you're reading this, chances are you probably have. You've heard the good news that God became man and that Jesus suffered, died, and rose for you, me, and everyone in between. Do you know you're part of it? This week, we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord. When Jesus ascended into heaven, he gave specific directions to his Apostles. "Go and make disciples of all nations." They listened! They made disciples, who made disciples, who made disciples, who made disciples, on down the centuries. And here we are! So what's next? The truth is that we're all commissioned and sent. It happened at our baptism, when we were made sharers in this sacred mission of Jesus. Who will make the next disciples? I hope it's you!

50th Anniversary of Priesthood Ordination Sunday, May 23 for Fr. Mike McDevitt

Make plans to help celebrate Fr. Mike McDevitt's Golden Jubilee on Sunday, May 23rd. Fr. Mike was ordinated on May 22, 1971 by Bishop Baum on the feast of St. Rita, his father's patron saint, at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Bel-Ridge, MO.

Golden Jubilee

After Mass there will be a brief program with coffee and donuts to follow, per Fr. Mike's request!!

If unable to attend, your cards may be mailed to parish office, PO Box 1920, Nixa, MO 65714 or placed in basket on table by information board.

Preparing For Pentecost Sunday, May 23rd

On this "birthday of the Church," we celebrate the proclamation of the "Good News" of Jesus to all the nations. The first reading for the Liturgy of the Word (Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11) tells us "each one heard them (the apostles) speaking in their own language."

We invite everyone to Wear RED to Mass that day. The priest will be wearing red vestments—the color that symbolizes the fire and passion of the Holy Spirit. Together we can generate spirit and energy to enliven our celebration.

Congratulations to our First Communicants

Last Sunday we welcomed you to the table of the Lord as you took another step of initiation into our Catholic community. This is a significant event for you, for your family and for our parish family. We pray that Eucharist will always be central to your life as you continue your journey of faith. Your joining us at the table allows us to be renewed in our appreciation of the gift of Eucharist. Together, we can say "Thank you, God, for the gift of Jesus in the Eucharist"

Time to clean out your card closet! We are starting a Card Ministry to our fellow parishioners who are homebound or in area nursing homes. Drop off unused greeting cards and postage stamps in the box by the information board in the gathering space. All occasions (birthday, thinking of you, Christmas, blank, etc.) are needed.

Contact Rose Kuppinger, pappa853@suddenlink.net if you know someone who can benefit from receiving a card or if you would like to join the team writing in the cards. Let's work together to brighten someone's day!

May 27, will be Fr. Tom's 54th Anniversary of Priesthood.

June 2, Fr. Colby Elbert will celebrate his 4th Anniversary of Priesthood.

Please pray for our priest, for all they do for our Diocese, our Parish and for each of us.

Strengthening & Healing Souls Conference

"God is Always Active on our Behalf"

Thursday/Friday, May 27/28, 6—9 pm

Saturday, May 29, 6:30-9:00 pm

in person, or Livestreamed from

seaschurch.org Facebook page

Despite the tough year for our world, there is ALWAYS cause for hope in and reliance upon our Lord God. Please join with your brothers and sisters in our southern Missouri community, and come celebrate this hope and receive inspiration from it.

The beautiful, inspiring talks at the conference will be presented by two very dynamic priests - Father Francisco "Paco" Gordillo, of our Springfield-Cape Girardeau diocese and Father Philip Scott, FJ, the Founder of Family of Jesus the Healer, based in Peru.

This conference is in cooperation with the diocesan Office of Evangelization and Catechesis. Please contact Jan (763-1579) or Shelly (838-2730) with questions.

Stewardship

A Way of Life

Jesus is the perfect steward - watching carefully over all who have been entrusted to Him by the Father and then sending them all out into the world in service. May I similarly protect and wisely use the gifts entrusted to me.

Altar Servers and Training

If you will be a 4th grader next school year OR older, you have been baptized and received 1st Communion, then you can be an Altar Server.

Find out more about this ministry or have been an Altar Server in our parish and not received training this year, Deacon Gary will offer training on May 16, 22 or 23. Contact Deacon Gary for details, 660-651-1779 dre@stfrancisnixa.org

As an Altar Server, it is a privilege to kneel so close to the altar. You have a place of honor at Mass, because you assist the Priest in many ways. Your service and commitment are signs of your faith and your love for God.

Parish Monthly Eucharistic Adoration Wednesday, May 19, 7:00—9:00 p.m.

Bring a prayer book or rosary for your use during adoration, or you are invited to just sit quietly, gazing at the Blessed Sacrament, and taking in the grace and peace that comes from being with Christ.

Living the Word

Question of the Week

Mark 16:15—20

Key Passage: Jesus said to his disciples, "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature."

Question: How do you see yourself continuing the mission of Jesus?

Children: What does it mean to proclaim the gospel? How can you do it?

WHY ARE WE LOOKING AT THE SKY?

Men of Galilee — why are you looking at the sky? It seems like a pretty foolish question for the angels to be asking the disciples. Their best friend just flew away in a cloud. I think in that situation, my first reaction would probably be to stop and stare, too.

But let's not forget, the disciples had a lot of work to do. A world full of souls to evangelize. I've always been a little amused at the thought of the angels shooing them down from Mount Olivet. Get to work! The kingdom isn't going to build itself!

In our own faith lives, we often find ourselves looking at the sky, don't we? We're the faithful, after all. We have seen Christ. We have accepted him. We have given ourselves to him. What more do we need to do? Perhaps we excessively dwell on the past, or anxiously anticipate the future. Perhaps we can't move on from a mistake we have made, or we are shying away from a challenge in front of us. We all have our own cloud that has bewitched us.

But let's remember, our faith compels action. Once again, the kingdom isn't going to build itself.

Why are you looking at the sky? The work is here. The hour is at hand. A good steward is to be mindful of the gift of time. What's the mountain you need to climb down? What is the task God is handing you? For what purpose has God placed you here, at this very moment in history?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHAT IS THE MEANING OF THE LETTERS THAT PROFESSED RELIGIOUS HAVE AFTER THEIR NAMES?

The Catholic Church includes hundreds of religious communities. The priests, religious brothers, religious sisters, and nuns of these communities (which are often referred to as "religious orders") are committed to particular spiritual traditions and often to a particular charism (such as teaching, healthcare, social work, or pastoral care).

To help identify a person as a member of a particular religious community, the custom developed of including post-nominal letters that provide a sort of shorthand for the name of the community that the priest, brother, sister or nun is part of. So, for example OSB after a person's name would indicate that they are a member of the Order of St. Benedict (the Benedictines), just as SJ would indicate that a priest or brother is a member of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) or RSM would show that a woman is a Sister of Mercy.

Other common examples include:

DC = Daughters of Charity

FSC = The Brothers of the Christian Schools/
Christian Brothers

OCist = The Order of Cistercians

OCD = Order of Discalced Carmelites

OFM = The Order of Friars Minor (the Franciscans)

OFM Cap = The Capuchin Franciscans

OP = The Order of Preachers (Dominicans)

OSF=Franciscan Sisters

SC = Sisters of Charity

SDS = Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Priests and Brothers and Salvatorian Sisters)

SSND = School Sisters of Notre Dame

SVD = Society of the Divine Word
(Divine Word Missionaries)
