In today's Gospel, Jesus gives His disciples - and us - a new commandment: "Love one another." Good stewards who spend their time and talents in service to others are well on their way to fulfilling this commandment.

MANY prayers, blessings, and continued best wishes to the members of the Class of 2022 that are being honored at this Sunday's 10:00am Mass. May your Catholic faith continue to guide and inspire you to engage our 21st century world as authentic disciples whose lives are characterized by love, truth beauty and goodness. Please rest assured of some extra prayers from me that your graduation parties may be enjoyable and safe for all! My final wish and prayer for you is that you may be open to what God wants you to with your lives.

In reflecting upon almost fifteen years of priesthood, and the factors that helped me to not only realize but answer that call, I must state that a huge part of this was that my parents shaped our home life with Catholic faith that was always present, but not in a self-righteous, overbearing manner. The second aspect of my upbringing that I am just as grateful for, was that my home life was stable. The third element that I credit for my hearing of God calling was that a large part of my childhood and the childhoods of my four siblings was characterized by large segments of unstructured time that sadly for many years now children are just not permitted to have, for a variety of reasons, of course. Granted there was school accompanied by homework and farm chores, but other than that, we had ample time just to be and reflect. Summers were especially glorious because other than helping to bale hay, there were no extra demands placed upon us at all and the three months were totally unscheduled time, except for Sunday and Holy Day Masses, of course.

I am not saying that children should not be encouraged to try and be involved in things, but proper balance is not just for gymnasts or car wheels but applies to us all; the results are just as devastating when life becomes unbalanced and/or over scheduled.

While vocation stories are as unique as the individuals themselves in religious life, there are some common elements that manifest themselves, and time and space to hear and answer God's quiet voice and the stirrings of the heart are fundamental. I have long been convinced that God has been, and continues to, call many to priesthood and all areas of consecrated religious life, but the modern penchant for busyness and distractions, especially imposed upon young children, is a huge reason (but not the only reason) why vocations offices of many dioceses struggle so mightily to attract and maintain suitable candidates for priesthood and consecrated life. Something to ponder as we continue to witness the numbers of active priests within the Archdiocese of Dubuque dwindle, which may have some serious ramifications for parishes and parish structures in the not-so-distant future.

Have a great week. More to come on this and many other issues!

"I pray that all those young people who have graduated do not carry just a piece of paper with them, but that they carry with them love, peace, and joy. That they become the sunshine of God's love to our people, the hope of eternal happiness, and the burning flame of love wherever they go. That they become carriers of God's love. That they be able to give what they have received. For they have received not to keep, but to share."

ARCHDIOCESEONE IS HERE!

After hearing about ArchdioceseOne these past two years, the special appeal kicked off in your parish last weekend. Our ArchdioceseOne fundraising goal is $48 million, and we are confident that Catholic households across our Archdiocese will step up to help. In addition to supporting our financial beneficiaries, we pray this appeal results in the following spiritual benefits:

- to strengthen unity in our Archdiocese,
- to deepen our practice of stewardship as a way of life, and
- to heal the Church with the medicine of charity.

We cannot hope to bring this appeal to a successful completion without God’s inspiration or His help. Towards that end, over the course of the next ten weeks, we invite you to pray our ArchdioceseOne prayer: God, come to our assistance. Lord, make haste to help us. Amen.

Priest Retirement

Part of the compensation we provide our priests is the promise of a monthly stipend and health care when they retire. This is right and just because their salary is too small for them to put much away in savings, or to generate a substantial social security benefit. Plus, our retired priests must pay out-of-pocket for things that are provided to an active priest, such as room and board. Learn more: www.archdioceseone.org/priest-retirement

Seminarian Education

The Archdiocese of Dubuque pays for the expenses associated with the education of our major seminarians at Mundelein Seminary (Loras College generously covers tuition for our minor seminarians there). By entering the seminary, a man indicates his openness to dedicating his whole life to service as a priest in the Archdiocese of Dubuque; that is no small thing. It is therefore right and just for us to pay for their education; if seminarians had to bear the cost themselves, that might deter them from going to the seminary. Learn more: www.archdioceseone.org/seminary-education

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS EXEMPLIFICATION

Immediately after 10:00am Mass, in the Chapel.
All men over 18 are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Dear St. Benedict Parish,
Thank you for your continued support for our Bingo program here at Wellington. We always announce where the prizes are furnished from. We hope sometime in the future we will be back to having all volunteers back inside. Good Bless,
Mae Schmitt, Activity Director, Wellington Place
