Our Journey with Christ

Dear folks,

Merry Christmas! ¡Feliz Navidad! As we celebrate the great gift to us in the person of Jesus Christ, I cannot help but be a bit nostalgic of Christmases past. Some of my favorite Christmas memories involve family gatherings—coming home from Midnight Mass to get the plate ready for Santa and then waking up at 4:30 to find Santa’s glove caught in the mousetrap that I put in my stocking; seeing my grandparents and parents come groggily out of bed with my brothers and I jumping at the bit to open gifts. We would always have Christmas brunch—there were seven grapefruit halves with a cherry in the center and one orange half to begin the meal (yes, I have always been a very picky eater). One of the many traditions that we had was on December 26 to go shopping for Santa figurines as birthday presents for my mom whose birthday was the next day. It was fun to watch the collection grow over the years. When I would come home to visit in recent years, I loved seeing and hearing the stories about these different figurines. Perhaps the best story is when my youngest brother was stationed in Kuwait, he sent my mom a birthday gift with a figurine and a bottle of perfume. He was called into the commander’s office because the Army blew up the package because of the liquid that showed up on the scanner. He wrote to my mother to apologize for missing her birthday and included the reprimand as proof. Of course, it was a Santa figurine made of the most precious materials one could find.

My prayers for you and your family is that you may know the power of Christ’s presence daily in your life. By His coming in the flesh, we have the most precious gift we have ever received. God could easily have zapped us into obedience; He could have simply destroyed Satan’s power without our knowledge. We have a God who chose instead to send His very Son into the world so that we could know the depths of His Love through a relationship with Him on our terms and in our experience. I pray that you will know the power of this relationship and share the fruits of this relationship with everyone you meet.

A warm welcome to everyone who is joining us this weekend and who is reading this bulletin. We welcome those who are visiting family. We welcome those who grew up in our community and are returning for the holidays. We welcome our students who are returning for a well-earned break. We welcome those who are exploring a relationship with Christ. We welcome all who are seeking reconciliation with the Church. We welcome all who are here. Thank you for your presence among us. We simply are not complete with you.

Finally, may the coming year of our Lord 2022 be filled with the joy of Christ’s peace, love, grace, forgiveness and mercy. May you and your family enjoy good health and fun-filled days. Please continue to pray for Father Cletus, the ministry team, our school teams and me. Happy Christmas and a blessed New Year! —Father Matthew

What Christmas Means to Me

As I get older, each Christmas seems to hit me with a fresh new way to see our world and the role I play in it. This year I am reminded how at the center of the Gospel Christmas story, Mary, Joseph and shepherds are people of little power and significance; but what the world may see as unimportant, God honors.

This past year we can relate to feeling hidden or powerless in an unpredictable world. The Christmas message I want to share with you is that all people hold a special place in God's heart. God was born among us to love us and to teach us to love one another. My Christmas prayer is that all people may know God's love and use every opportunity to share that love with everyone they meet. Merry Christmas to you and your family!

—Sherry Braegelmann

ELEMENTARY
DISCIPLESHIP

Our next class for grades one through five will be on Wed, Jan 5, 2022, when we will enjoy some Christmas carols and cookies before going home for the night.

Second graders will be celebrating their First Reconciliation on Mon, Jan 24 at 7:00 PM at Saint Boniface Church. All students need to turn in the work that they have been completing at home in preparation for this special sacrament. These may be turned in at class or in the baskets provided at the churches.

Merry Christmas to our wonderful students, their families, and their teachers! You are all a blessing to me and many others! I look forward to the new year's classes, First Communion retreats, sacraments to be celebrated, and the continuing transformation of our hearts to love Jesus more deeply every day.

ADULT DISCIPLESHIP

When I was about 10, I made it known I wanted a Fender Stratocaster electric guitar, the plastic version, of course. To my surprise one was under the tree for me on Christmas morning. I treasured that more than any other toy I ever received. To hide it from my brothers, I put it high on a shelf in the closet. It fell and shattered into pieces shortly after Christmas; I cried and cried. I loved to pretend I was in a band as a kid. Five years later, at 15, I bought a real Strat. I played in local bands until 2005. Being a musician became my identity.

It is fun to get things for Christmas that we enjoy, but the gift I treasure the most now is the gift of my faith. Our faith is a precious gift from God. Jesus came into the world so that we might have eternal life. I can't think of a better gift than that! Merry Christmas! —Deacon Dan

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

As I reflect on what to write in this year's Christmas letter, I am once again surprised how quickly time has passed. Where did 2021 go? Words like fortunate, grateful and blessed jump out from my writing. Although I keep coming back to time. Well, time surely must fly when you're having fun, because it appears to be gone in the blink of the eye.

Following the year of quiet and restraining from doing everything with people. This year continued by playing it safe, I find many ways have remained. As much as I like to fish, I didn't spend any more time on the lake than in a past summer. I may have spent more time outside, either biking on the trail, walking in the woods or flower parks. Family picnics and patio eating were still a choice; along with trying new home cooked recipes - interestingly the old standbys continue to grace the table. The days have been busy with family, friends and work. Making the moment count, because every extra gifted moment is appreciated.

I was in search of a photographic moment, and I decided to climb a fire tower to view the intense fall leaf color from the treetops. The song Top of the World lookin' down on creation came to mind.

The sky was an incredible shade of blue and I could see miles in the distance. At this moment a feeling of peace went through me, with the realization of not taking anything for granted. How our lives quickly change, just as the leaves on the trees will blow in the wind and fall to the ground.

I find joy in the little things, in hearing or saying the words I LOVE YOU being at the top of the list. Time is a gift, appreciate the view. How great is our God who gives us so much, we only need to open our eyes and hearts to feel His love. Is the love that I've found, ever since you've been around.

—Deb

THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too. ©LPi

Coming Back to Church

Question:

I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer:

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back.

This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.

Nathan is the 15-year-old son of Brian and Mary Ruhland. He is currently a 9th grader at Rocori High School. Nathan was born with aortic stenosis and has undergone several heart surgeries in his short life. Unfortunately, there isn't much more the heart doctors can do for him, in October 2021, Nathan was approved to be added to the heart transplant list.

The transplant journey is long and costly, Nathan's family is hoping to offset some of the costs through a fundraiser. Fundraising proceeds will benefit COTA in honor of Nathan to assist with transplant-related expenses. COTA (Children's Organ Transplant Association) is a non-profit organization that assists families of transplant recipients. All donations are tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law and are not considered taxable income for the family. 100% of the proceeds raised from fundraising will go to COTA in honor of Braveheart Nathan to assist with a lifetime of transplant-related expenses.
