MARCH 20, 2022 - THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!" - Lk 13: 2-3

OUR CCCC LENTEN PROJECT A PLACE OF HOPE

Each year we select one charity for our Lenten almsgiving. This year's recipient is a Place of Hope in Saint Cloud.

Place of Hope is a multi-faceted outreach program serving the Central Minnesota community.

Many people in our community are in great need for support and services because of homelessness, poverty, drug addiction, alcoholism and other crisis.

You can support a Place of Hope by almsgiving (donating money), volunteering to serve meals again and praying for the success of the ministry provided locally.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Deserts can be lonely, isolated and treacherous places. When a person wanders in a desert, they can easily get disoriented, dehydrated, confused, lost and vulnerable. Temptation is at its peak, especially when confronted with something that may offer some respite or relief, even a mirage. Deserts can bring us to our weakest moment and tempt our faith. The Christian journey can be described as a desert experience as we vacillate back and forth, falling victim to the mirages of our lives versus the true, life-giving water offered by God. We need a burning bush experience in our lives that convinces us of the power of God and reveals Him as the “I am” of all existence.

Moses was leading his flock across the desert when he found himself at Mount Horeb. Mountains give us a fuller perspective of life, a panoramic view of what would otherwise be hidden from the limitations of our sight. That’s when Moses met God. We have to find our way to a mountain experience where our vantage point can take on a wider view of life. Many things can do this for us: the birth of a child, the death of someone we love, the joy that comes from marveling at the beauty of God’s work, the pondering of life’s mysteries, and the ache of longing found deep within our souls. There are many things in life that can wake us up, give us a clearer, better view of things and become occasions where a bush may burn and God’s presence as the eternal uncreated One is revealed.

God is very patient and gives us the time and space we need to figure things out and bear some good fruit. He doesn’t rush to cut us down or get frustrated with our barrenness. But we have to remember that the desert journeys of our lives come with some risks. The major risk is that we will mistakenly believe that the mirages are real. Thus, we fall victim to thinking that the respite and refreshment we seek is discovered in a place other than where it actually is. Our faith and the life of the Church are the safeguards we need to keep us properly orientated so that we don’t get lost or confused and stay on course. ©LPi

Stoking the Lenten Fire

I think we all can acknowledge that there’s a certain fatigue that comes over us all as we near the end of the Lenten season. Next week is Laetare Sunday, and I find that as soon as those pink vestments start coming out of storage, our collective motivation begins to wane.

I get that. Maybe you’re fatigued — I am, too. Maybe you’re doing well in your resolutions and devotions but you’re in danger of coasting. Or maybe, like many of us this year or in past years, you don’t feel that you have even really begun your Lenten journey.

Either way, chances are that the fire that was in your belly on Ash Wednesday is burning a bit low. All fires eventually do, once they consume whatever fuels them. So here we would do well to remember what fuels our Lenten fire.

Sometimes we make resolutions that have the appearance of being spiritual, but also have an earthly motive. We give up chocolate hoping to lose weight. We stop gossiping so our friends may like us more. There is nothing wrong with these sacrifices — just with their motivations.

As Moses removes his sandals to approach the burning bush, he sees that the fire burns brightly, strongly — but does not consume. It is propelled by something inexhaustible, something which is not of this world.

Is your Lenten fire fueled by God? Are you daily surrendering yourself to the same voice that boomed from the bush in Genesis — the voice that commanded the Israelites to do what seemed like the impossible?
— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

CONFESSION

En route to church to make his first confession, my nervous seven-year-old grandson asked me what he could expect.

“Confession is where you tell all the bad things you’ve done to the priest,” I told him. He looked relieved.

“Good. I haven’t done anything bad to the priest.”

The Invitation: What does it mean to be a disciple? Presenter Nick Redd shares through his own testimony as well as historical evidence that Jesus didn't only call the elite. Jesus' invitation to follow him is for everyone. Short four-part series.

Lent with Brother Francis: Let's Learn about Lent. Join Brother Francis in this compact presentation of what Lent is all about and how we observe it as Catholics. Great for the whole family!

If you have any questions contact Chad.

SEASONAL HYMNS & TEXT

We will utilize the same Gathering hymns and Preparation song for the entire season of Lent, but the texts will change from week to week.

We gather to John Bell's "Take, O Take Me As I Am," interspersed with a verse from Bernadette Farrell's hymn "O God, You Search Me."

The Preparation song will be "Tree of Life," but with specific verses for the Lenten Sundays.

Additionally, we will utilize the common psalm for Lent, singing a setting of Psalm 91: "Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble". - Matt

LENT IS HERE!

Lent is a time when we strive to come closer to our Lord Jesus Christ; it is a time to reflect.

We can do this in many ways. A list is available via our "Lenten Resources" webpage. There is a button on our ChristCatholic.com homepage. If online isn't your thing, contact Deacon Dan and he can help you access the resources.

Several options need action:

1. Book study by Fr. Jacques Philippe (Interior Freedom), see webpage for details.
2. We need facilitator volunteers for Walking on Water. Training will be provided. Contact Deacon Dan.

LITURGICAL LIFE

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

First Reading

In his initial encounter with the Lord, Moses learns the name of God, "I AM". What insight does this give us into the nature of the divine?

Second Reading

Paul believed that the past mistakes of the ancient Israelites in the desert served as an example of the dangers of too much self-confidence. How can one best avoid arrogance in faith?

Gospel Reading

In the parable of the barren fig tree, Jesus taught the crowds of the need to repent in order to bear good fruit. For what do you need to repent in this season of Lent?

MOVIE & LIGHT MEAL

The film 'Unplanned' will be shown in the Saint Anthony Parish Center, Saint Cloud, following the 4:30 PM Saturday Mass on April 2.

Light meal served prior to showing.

TEEN & YOUNG ADULT DISCIPLESHIP

Confirmation: Please keep our Confirmation students in prayer as they make final preparations to receive the Sacrament on Sunday, March 27 at 2:00 PM at Saint Boniface.

Mission Trip: Our trip is now full. We're so excited to have this many teens interested in serving others through this unique opportunity! Please watch for ways you can help support these students through prayer and financial donations.
