MARY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION + SAINT BONIFACE + SAINTS PETER AND PAUL + SAINT JAMES

Our Journey with Christ

Dear folks:

Christ is Risen! He is truly Risen! Alleluia!

Welcome—To all who are joining us whether for the first time or for the millionth time, we are so happy to have you celebrate with us the most important moment in the history of our world. Your presence with us matters. Thank you.

First Communion—Over the next four Sundays we will be celebrating First Communion in each parish. Next weekend we will celebrate at Mary of the Immaculate Conception at 7:30 AM and at 1:00 PM. On April 30 and May 1, we will celebrate at Saint Boniface. On May 8, we will celebrate at Saints Peter & Paul, and on May 15 at Saint James. We are so looking forward to being able to have our second graders receive Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist for the first time.

Eucharistic Revival—The Bishops in the United States have been planning a Eucharistic Revival in our nation in the coming years. Each parish throughout our country will be participating in this revival. The Diocese of Saint Cloud is currently in the planning stages for how this will look locally. Please stay tuned for more information as we grow in our appreciation for the great gift that Jesus gives us of His Body and Blood.

Reception of Communion—On Holy Thursday we reintroduced the reception of the Precious Blood. We will continue to offer the Precious Blood at our Sunday Masses as long as we have Ministers of Holy Communion who are willing to consume what is left over. In saying this, we will be starting to consecrate a smaller amount and work our way up until we find the right amount. I appreciate your patience with us as we figure out the proper process.

Reverence before, during and after Mass—As I am on the topic of Holy Communion, it is fitting to remind folks of the protocols of reverence in church. Genuflections are made when one passes before the tabernacle as one enters the church and when one leaves the church. You'll notice that during the Mass, the priests and deacons will genuflect if they are not carrying anything as they enter and as they leave. At all other times, they bow to the altar during the celebration of Mass itself because the reverence is given to the table of sacrifice.

Thank you—Matt Reichert shared that he will be working with the Catholic Leadership Institute. He will continue to lead music at our ACC Masses, but he will not be working as our Director of Worship. We are grateful for Matt and his ability to create a cohesive Worship ministry for the Centered on Christ Catholic Community.

While he is not leaving us, his presence will be missed in our day-to-day ministry. We look forward to learning more about his new venture.

Father Matthew

ELEMENTARY DISCIPLESHIP

A most blessed and joyful Easter to you and your families! May you feel your faith renewed and your heart made new with the hope Easter brings!

Have you seen the new book bags at Saint Boniface Church? These have been brought to you by Saint Boniface School for our little disciples to enjoy during Mass. Thank you Saint Boniface School!

First Communion Liturgies are scheduled as follows: MIC - Sunday, April 24 at 7:30 AM
SB - Saturday, April 30 at 4:00 PM
Sunday, May 1 at 9:30 AM
SSPP - Saturday, May 7 at 5:00 PM
Sunday, May 8 at 10:00 AM
SJ - Sunday, May 15 at 8:00 AM

All families with children receiving their First Communion will arrive ½ hour before each of these Masses for photographs and announcements. Because of this, the rosary will not be recited before these Masses.

Vacation Bible School will be held at Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Rockville this summer! We will gather June 20-24 from 9:30 AM to 12:00 PM daily. VBS is open to all children entering grades 1-5. Mark your calendars for a fun-filled week for your kids!

“Spiritual direction is ...the process of helping someone to notice the presence and action of God in their lives and to respond to it.”-James Martin, SJ

Interested in one-on-one direction and spiritual guidance?
Contact: Sister Sharon Waldoch, SSND

Stewardship as a Way of Life:
“For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ” (Philippians 3: 8).
The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Sharing all of our gifts — our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the Church — helps us keep God first in everything. It helps us to not put other gods before God. It helps us to not become a slave to our possessions. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not for the glory of ourselves.

Pray for Your Enemies

Meditation: My daughter, in this meditation, consider the love of neighbor. Is your love for your neighbor guided by My love? Do you pray for your enemies? Do you wish well to those who have, in one way or another, caused you sorrow or offended you?

Know that whatever good you do to any soul, I accept it as if you had done it to Me (Diary, 1768).

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, help me to pray for my enemies and for those who have caused me sorrows. Teach me to live Your word: “Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of Mine, you did for Me” (Mt 25: 40).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.*

The Centered on Christ Catholic Community invites you to join us.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process for adults seeking to receive the sacraments of initiation, or simply to learn more about what it means to be Catholic.

If you or anyone you know would like to hear more about this journey please contact Sherry.

* Channel 10 provides a free service to our faith community. They do their best to provide for us weekly scheduled timeslots for both live and rebroadcast Masses and events. From time to time Tri-City Cable needs to share our timeslots, especially rebroadcast times, with other organizations in the community. Our bulletin shows the planned weekly schedule, but not changes that occur. See <http://www.tricitycable.org> for the latest schedule.

LITURGICAL LIFE
QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

First Reading

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10: 40-41)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading

Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (Col 3: 2-3)

Gospel Reading

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20: 9)

LIVE THE LITURGY: Alleluia, Christ is risen! What a glorious and holy day. The resurrection of Christ speaks of freedom, new life, restored faith and enduring, unconditional love. The huge stone, separating death and life, has been moved, allowing God's radiant power to usher in eternal life. When we see the truth of Christ's resurrection through eyes of love, we see the fullness of timeless beauty, truth and wonder revealed. The emptiness of the tomb is filled with the eternity of love. We have many stones and boulders blocking the path to freedom, love and joy. They are often too big for us to move, and they cripple us. We can take a leap of faith today and believe with all our heart, mind and soul that there is much more than can be seen by the naked eye. There is something very holy, sacred and eternal stirring within us. We want to live forever! Christ's resurrection brings us joy and allows us to see ourselves as we are meant to be seen, as God's children destined for glory!
