THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday, and later this week we will celebrate a group of days known as The Triduum. It begins on Holy Thursday evening with the Mass of the Lord's Supper and concludes in the evening of Easter Sunday. To help us get ready, I thought it would be good to go over the main liturgies of this period.

HOLY THURSDAY – MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

We are commemorating three principle mysteries here: the institution of the Eucharist; the institution of priestly orders; and the commandment to fraternal charity. After the homily, the priest washes the feet of a number of people chosen from the congregation. This commemorates what Christ did at the Last Supper. Mass continues as usual through Communion. Afterward, the priest says a prayer and then takes up a ciborium with Communion for tomorrow and processes with the servers and deacon to the Altar of Repose. This symbolizes Christ leading His disciples to Gethsemane. The Eucharist remains at the Altar of Repose while the main Tabernacle remains empty.

GOOD FRIDAY

This liturgy is really quite simple, but also profound. It takes place at three in the afternoon (when Jesus died) and is split into three parts. First is the Liturgy of the Word. It contains the readings (including the Passion from John), the homily, and special intercessions. Second is the Adoration of the Cross. A cross or crucifix is displayed and the congregation is invited to reverence it. Third is Holy Communion. No Eucharistic prayer is said this day. Instead, Communion from Thursday is brought from the Altar of Repose and given to the people.

HOLY SATURDAY – EASTER VIGIL

This is the greatest celebration of the whole year. It is divided into four parts. First is the Lucernarium or Liturgy of Light. A fire is lit and blessed. The new Paschal Candle is also blessed and lit. From this many other candles are lit as all process into the dark Church as into a dark tomb. The Exultet (Easter proclamation) is sung and the lights are turned on. Second is the Liturgy of the Word. Anywhere from three to seven Old Testament Readings are read (we will do four) with psalms and prayers. We hear about Salvation History and why Christ had to die. The Gloria is sung, the altar candles are lit, and a reading from Romans follows. The Alleluia is sung and the Gospel is read with a homily after. The Third part is the Baptismal Liturgy. We have no one entering the Church this year in our parishes, but normally this is when it would happen. We do sing the Litany of the Saints (to ask for their prayers) and renew our Baptismal Promises. The fourth part is the Liturgy of the Eucharist, which is the Mass as usual. Easter Sunday is Mass as usual, except we sing the Sequence and renew our Baptismal Promises.

The Triduum is a wonderful set of celebrations that lead us to the Resurrection. Please try to come to as many of the liturgies as your schedules allow.

Youth Minister's Letter

I would like to take this opportunity to invite everyone to Living Stations this Wednesday (April 17th) at 7pm at St. Cecilia's. The teens and some of the young children have been working very hard to prepare for this event. In case you haven't been before, the people in the Living Stations wear costumes and pose in different positions representing the various stations Jesus stopped at along his way to Calvary. We have narrators and between each station there are musical interludes. Those who come find this to be a very moving and dynamic night of reflection. Both Catholics and Christians from other churches come year after year because there is always more insight to gain. Please note that all faith formation classes are canceled this night so that all might come and participate in this night of reflection. We will resume classes on April 24th. Easter is near. Let us celebrate Holy Week well so that we may more fully share in the joy of Christ's Resurrection.

God Bless, Christina
