Know someone who could use prayers?

CALL- St. Cecilia's Prayer Chain:

Darlene or Ted Squillace 885-1057.

Mary Immaculate Prayer Chain:

Teresa Kessler 910-9007.

Sister Dorene King from St. Scholastica Monastery has been assigned to our parishes to be a prayer advocate. She is praying for us, but if you have a special intention please call (218)723-6555.

ASK FR. JOE

“Can Mass intentions be said for the living?”

So the answer to the question itself is yes! You may have noticed that the Mass intentions for the week are listed on the left side of this page. Occasionally a cross is included next to a name. When the cross is there, it means we are praying for the repose of the soul of a person who has died. Otherwise we are praying for a living person.

Since the topic of Mass intentions has been brought up, I thought I would take a moment to talk more about them. The Church has a long tradition of people requesting that a specific intention be offered at Mass. Typically a monetary offering is made. In the Diocese of Duluth and in most places in the United States, the usual offering is $10 per Mass. However, I want to be clear that the money is not required. In a previous parish I was in, a woman came in to request a Mass intention. She said, “I would like to buy a Mass”. I was so surprised that this person thought that was what she was doing! You cannot “buy a Mass”, nor does the Church sell Masses or intentions as if the money is required. No one is denied a Mass intention because they did not have the money with them. The monetary offering is simply a donation made to the priest who is offering the Mass. A priest is allowed to take only one offering per day. So I can only receive $10 for a Mass. The priest can do what he wants with the money from Mass offerings. I have my offerings put into a rectory fund for things needed at the rectory. So that money donated for Mass intentions at our parishes does not go with me, but stays in the parishes.

The Mass intention listed in our bulletin is the main intention that the priest is praying for at the Mass. Most, if not all the time, a monetary offering was given for that Mass. That being said, the listed intention is by far not the only intention that the priest is praying about on the altar. I can only accept one offering but I can pray for as many people and intentions as I want at Mass. A lot of people don't know this, but the laity can also have their own intention at Mass. When you come to Mass, you are welcome to pray with the priest for the listed intention, but you are also free to make your own intention. When you receive Communion at Mass, you can offer up your Communion for a particular intention as well. These are very powerful prayers. I encourage you to take time before coming to Mass to consider who you would like to pray for at Mass.

From Mari Jo Anderson:
Director of Religious Education

"O Jesus, I surrender myself to You, take care of everything!"

This simple refrain captured my heart from the first time I heard it. I had never heard of the Surrender Novena—the prayer from which these words were taken—nor of Don Dolindo, its author, but I was so taken with this powerful prayer that I immediately wanted to learn more about both. As it turns out, Servant of God Don Dolindo Ruotolo was, for a short time, the spiritual director of someone I have written about many times: Padre Pio.

St. Pio said Don Dolindo was a "saint" and that "the whole of Paradise" was in his soul. Don Dolindo called himself "Mary's little old man." He lived in such great poverty that his own family turned away from him. He opened his arms without fear to embrace contagious sick people, caressing and kissing them. He offered himself as a victim soul for mankind, and was afflicted with many sufferings, including complete paralysis for the last ten years of his life. But he suffered with joy, because he suffered for love.

He also had the gift of prophecy, writing to Bishop Huilica in 1965 that "a new John will rise out of Poland with heroic steps to break the chains beyond the boundaries imposed by the communist tyranny." This prophecy was realized in Pope John Paul II. Many miracles have been attributed to Don Dolindo's intercession, both before and after his death.
