From Deacon Greg...

Today, Jesus' voice is brought to us by the evangelist saint Luke. Luke writes his friend Theophilus, so that you "may know the truth of all you have been taught". Today, the Word of God introduces Jesus the Master. It is no longer irrelevant whether to believe or not in Jesus, because it is the "Spirit of the Lord" who has anointed and sent him over. Through His Word, God's message is good news to the poor, proclaims liberty to captives and new sight to the blind; frees the oppressed and announces a promise of salvation. It is a message filling with hope all mankind. We, children of God in Christ by virtue of our baptism, have also received his holy anointment to participate in his mission: namely, to bring this message of hope to all Mankind. It is knowing the Gospel story that brings consistency to our faith. We see Jesus preaching in a different way than the other masters: "He taught and his message had authority". Because He preached with his amazing deeds, with his example, by giving testimony and finally by offering his own life for all of us. We are supposed to do the same; we cannot just limit ourselves to words: our love for God and our brothers is in bad need of our deeds and examples. As a mother trying to guide our steps for that purpose, the Church gives us The Works of Mercy —seven spiritual and seven corporal, which can indeed be very valuable for us .

From Our DEF...

Love and Blessings to You All!

This week, I wish to pause and lift up in prayer all those who are experiencing hardship, suffering, and sadness from the effects of Covid 19 in their lives. Whether witnessed among our friends, family members, coworkers, or ourselves, it is clear that much prayer and love is needed to help strengthen us in such a trying time.

I also lift up in prayer our faith formation students and their families. Our program this year has involved a great deal of flexibility from our parish families. They have become adept at utilizing online learning, Zoom meetings, and being catechists of the faith in their own homes over the course of this year so far (which is of course not what a typical faith formation year looks like!).

However, the dedication these families possess inspires me. They remind me that a church is much more than just a building where we worship...it is the individuals and community of Catholics that fill it with God's love and compassion for one another. Thanks to this great love through the Holy Spirit in each and every one of us, our church is everywhere (virtual and not!).

Let's continue to be flexible, get creative, and spread God's love in our community and world even in the midst of this pandemic. Bound to one another with the common goal of spreading God's love, there is no stopping what we can do! You are all amazing. God's blessings to you!

Amanda
