From Father Charlie Friebohle

By now you should have heard that we are having Gus Lloyd come on July 22 for a Day of Renewal, and this is exciting not only because we have wonderful speaker coming, but it gives us a day to be renewed by God.

When I was in seminary, we would have a day of renewal once a month. All our classes and formation affairs would be canceled for the day and we would have a guest speaker come in. Sometimes, we did not even know how a day like that was needed until it arrived.

Life gets hectic at times and we get worn down not only physically and mentally, but also spiritually. A day of renewal is a great way to get renewed spiritually even if we do not recognize it is something that we need at the moment. Our spiritual health can often be something we put on the backburner, and days like this are ways our spiritual health can be refreshed and renewed.

Whether you are an avid listener to Gus Lloyd or have never heard of him, I would love it if you were able to mark this day on your calendar, and come to be renewed spiritually. It is always good to just come with an open mind, and let God renew you throughout the day. What a joy it would be to see the church filled with people getting renewed by God's grace, so do not be afraid to invite others to come along.

More information on the day can be found here in the bulletin, and there are flyers hanging up at both of our churches.

Totus Tuus

One great thing our diocese has for our youth is Totus Tuus. Starting on the 16th, we will be having this happen at St. Anthony's for our youth.

If you have any youth in your family, make sure to sign them up and get them here as this is a great experience. Even if they cannot make it everyday, it is worth sending them.

We will be having a team of young men and women coming in to put this on to make sure that our youth have a great experience.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Charlie

Please note that Thursday, July 13th Adoration will start at 1 p.m. due to a funeral.

From Our DEF

Prayers for Totus Tuus!

As we approach the arrival of our Totus Tuus team this upcoming weekend and the beginning of Totus Tuus week, I ask that you please pray for the Holy Spirit to fill their hearts and minds with Jesus as they lead our students in their summer faith journey.

We are so blessed to have them joining us for the week and look forward to many laughs, moments of spiritual encounter, and growth in our faith together.

As always, I appreciate your support and prayers for our youth!

Love and Blessings,

Amanda

What and Why Questions Answered

Do Catholics Preach the Gospel?

St. Mark begins his account of our Lord's life: "The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ" (Mk 1:1). "Gospel" means literally "good news." The first four books of the New Testament (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John) are called gospels because they announce the "good news of great joy" (Lk 2:10) -- the coming of a Savior, God himself in the flesh.

Some Christians claim that the Catholic Church doesn't really "preach the gospel," because they believe that salvation by "faith alone" is the substance of the gospel. But what exactly is the substance of this "good news" that much be preached?

St. Peter's first sermon, which is preached on the day of Pentecost (see Acts 2:22-40), summarizes Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and ascension into heaven. Then he instructs his hearers: "Repent, and be baptized ... for the forgiveness of your sins" (2:38).

In this address, the notion of salvation by "faith alone" does not appear at all. Instead, the gospel preached is the proclamation of who Jesus is and what he has done. Salvation (including God's forgiveness of sins) comes to the hearers through their response of repentance, baptism, and a subsequent life of obedience to God. When St. Paul preaches the gospel, he makes the same kind of proclamation and calls for the same kind of response (see Acts 13:16-41; 1 Cor 15:1-11).

According to Scripture, then, the gospel is what the Catholic Church has always preached: a proclamation of the life, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, which calls for our response of repentance, baptism, and a life of obedience to God.

In fact, every Mass is an instance of preaching the gospel. A passage from Matthew, Mark, Luke, or John is always read publicly at Mass so that we can hear and respond to God's good news. In addition, at every Mass the fruits of Christ's work are re-presented to us in the Eucharist, to help us live lives pleasing to God.
