The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 6, 2022

5th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." - Lk 5:5

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

OLP

Our Mission is to invite all to strengthen their experience of the message and Spirit of Jesus.

FATHER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

From Fr. Anthony Kadavil, St. John the Baptist Church, POB 417, 12450 Hwy 188, Grand Bay, AL 36541

Today's Scripture readings challenge us to discern God's call to each one of us to become His disciple with a mission. We are asked to recognize God's holy presence and acknowledge our unworthiness, due to our sinfulness, to become humble instruments in His hands, as the prophet Isaiah did in the first reading, as St. Paul did in the second reading, and as St. Peter did in today's Gospel.

Today's readings also teach us that God has His own criteria for selecting people to be His disciples, ministers and prophets. Presenting the special calls, or vocations, of Isaiah, Paul, and Peter as life-changing events, the readings challenge us to examine our own personal change of life and commitment to our discipleship.

Divine call daily executed:

One day, author and educator Howard Hendricks was on a plane that was delayed from takeoff. As passengers became irritated and demanding, Howard noticed how gracious one of the flight attendants continued to be with each passenger. When they were finally in the air he continued to be amazed at her poise and control.

When she came by his seat, Howard asked if he could write a letter of commendation to the airline on her behalf. "I don't work for the airline," she replied, "I work for Jesus Christ. My husband and I prayed this morning that I would be a good representative of Jesus Christ on this flight." —

Do you have a career or a calling?

You see, somewhere out on Lake Galilee, a few fishermen were transformed in such a way that they would eventually change the world, because Christ had come and had given them a mission for eternity.

(<https://frtonyshomilies.com/>)L/22

JOKES OF THE WEEK:

"Here I am Lord, send me."

A mother and father were worried about what career their son would choose. A friend told them to place on the dining room table a $20 note, a Bible and a fifth of liquor. Then they were to hide behind the curtains and observe their son's actions when he came in.

If he took the $20 bill, he would grow up to be a banker; if he chose the Bible, a preacher, and if he chose the liquor, a drunkard

The son came in and put the $20 bill in his pocket, held the Bible under one arm and the liquor under the other, and happily walked out of the room.

"Great goodness, Martha," said the husband to his wife, "He is going to be a politician!"

Catching fish from the shop:

A man had spent fruitless day fishing. He didn't want to go home empty-handed. He decided to stop at a local fish market. "I'd like three good sized fish," he said to the clerk. "But before you wrap them, toss them to me, one by one." The clerk looked puzzled at his request, "Sir? That's a strange thing to ask." Smiling the man said, "This way I'll be able to tell my wife truthfully that I caught them!"

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

CHERYL SODEMAN 507-245-3447

Faith formation classes 1-10 will meet on Wednesday, February 9 from 6:30-7:30.

Fifth grade class made cards to reach out to many parishioners within our parish as part of a class lesson.

PARENTING POINTERS - Black History Month. The past few years have been tumultuous for race relations, especially between blacks & whites. Few people think of themselves as racist, but do you or your children have friends of a different race? If you spend time primarily with people of your same color, find a way to meet someone who looks different than you this week. Perhaps go to a church, store, or neighborhood where people who look different from you gather. ... Susan Vogt susanvogt1@gmail.com

RMD (Required Minimum Distribution) For those of you who are required to take a RMD, if you have the check made out to the church, there are no taxes taken out! For more information about how you and the Church can benefit from this contact your financial planner or tax preparer.

The deadline for our bulletin is 10:00 am on Tuesday, unless otherwise noted. If you have any questions contact your parish office.
