The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time January 29, 2023

4th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." - Mt 5:10-12a

Our Mission is to invite all to strengthen their experience of the message and Spirit of Jesus.

Devices to assist the Hearing Impaired

During Mass are available. Please contact an usher before Mass to learn where they are located.

FATHER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

The Beatitudes

Writer and professor and preacher Fred Craddock puts it this way:

“Beatitudes need to be seen as responses to God’s favor rather than ways of earning God’s favor”, i.e., the language of the beatitudes is descriptive language---- this is who these people are now, and this is what the future holds for them.

It is not the language of law but the language of hope and promise . that the way things are now is not the way they will always be. On this day we read from the Beatitudes in Matthew’s Sermon on the Mount.

As a new Moses, Jesus climbs the mountain to proclaim the meaning of God’s call. The invitation is for all people to follow the qualities of blessedness that Jesus identifies: to be poor in spirit and become meek, to hunger and thirst to see right done.

To show pity to those in loss or pain and to seek to bring peace to quarreling neighbors.

To endure patiently the hard road to justice and equality among all peoples.

These are the interior qualities that all of God’s children are called to practice, and which bring us into the communion of all the saints.

Healthy Are the Poor in Spirit

Some years ago a panel of doctors was appointed by the Federal government to meet together and draw up eight laws of public health that could be printed in pamphlet Form and distributed to the public.

After twelve days off exhaustive meetings, the doctors were unable to come to a consensus. It seems that their areas of concern were so diverse: one was a cancer specialist, one a cardiologist, one a psychiatrist, and they all approached the problem from their own discipline. The chest expert was concerned about coal dust from the mines and lint from textile mills, while the psychiatrist was concerned about the effects off urban stress.

Finally, Dr. Harold Sladen of the Hospital in Detroit came up with an appropriate idea. He said: Let’s just republish the eight beatitudes of Jesus and simply replace the word “Blessed” with the words “healthy”.

Collection for the Church in Latin America: Thank you for your generous support for last week’s Collection for the Church in Latin America. The money collected will be used to share the faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean, so they in turn can share the Good News in their communities. If you missed the collection, it’s not too late to give! Visit www.usccb.org/latin-america and click “How to Give.” Your gift makes a difference!

PARENTING POINTERS: Ever heard the slogan, “Families that pray together stay together.”? Sure, praying together is good, but here’s an addendum, “Families that clean together get the job done.” What’s your least favorite room to clean? Discuss a cleaning plan that will work for your family.

The deadline for our bulletin is 10:00 am on Tuesday, unless otherwise noted. If you have any questions contact the parish office.

The Immaculate Conception choir is in need of voices! Due to illness, we have lost a soprano and other members travel in the winter and will not be available every Sunday. Since Gayle's retirement, choir members have been taking up the slack with the piano, but we would rather sing than play and we are not accomplished on the piano as the congregation is well aware. If anyone can play piano for even one Sunday a month it would be greatly appreciated! Please consider joining us, even one or two Sundays a month. It is no big commitment and we do have lots of fun praising Our Lord. Please contact Deloris 507-514-2695 or Connie 507-383-3760.
