FATHER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

You win because I have loved you!

Today we will celebrate the fact that Jesus, because he loved us, poured out all of Himself for us and in doing so was able to achieve for us what we could never have achieved on our own. We celebrate the greatest victory of all time, the victory of Jesus Christ over sin and death.

The power of his love triumphed over the hatred of those who put him to death.

Even the closest friends of Jesus did not see this upset in the making. We hear in the gospels that his friends had come to his tomb "in the dark," assured of defeat. They had witnessed his death with their own eyes. They hardly came to celebrate a victory. No, they came to anoint and attend to the corpse of a friend, whom they had loved and, as it turns out, the one who had loved them more than they ever could ever have imagined. And they were about to discover the power of such a love.

This weekend we will celebrate the fact that Jesus Christ is risen. To us who are underdogs, God says: You Win. Not because of anything you did or did not do. You Win. Not because you are the strongest, smartest, most talented or even the most charitable.

You win because I have loved you with an everlasting love.

This weekend we will proclaim that we do indeed believe in miracles. This weekend we will sing out Alleluia, for we are an Easter people, a people of the resurrection.

This weekend we will be called to leave Church as an Easter people, seeking ways to share Christ's life and love with all those who come into our lives.

BAPTISM: Please welcome into the faith family Mallory Jo and Brody Keith Loeffler, children of Alexander Loeffler and Alaine Hansen, who were baptized on Saturday, April 1, 2023 at Immaculate Conception by Father Robert Schneider.

We also welcome Justin John and Jeremiah Pete Thissen, sons of Jacob and Jaclyn, who were baptized on Saturday, April 1, 2023 at Immaculate Conception by Father Robert Schneider.

We also welcome Colson Crew Van Asten, son of Curt and Jessie, who was baptized on Sunday, April 2, 2023 at All Saints by Father Robert Schneider.
