Reflections From Father James Weldon:

God, infinitely perfect and blessed in himself, in a plan of sheer goodness, freely created man to make him share in his own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man. He calls man to seek him, to know him, to love him with all his strength. He calls together all men, scattered and divided by sin, into the unity of his family, the Church. To accomplish this, when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son as Redeemer and Savior. In his Son and through him, he invites men to become, in the Holy Spirit, his adopted children and thus heirs of his blessed life.

This Sunday we welcome Bishop Kemme to celebrate the 10:00 Mass. He is here to install me as the pastor of St. Joseph. The bishop is the successor of the Apostles. Jesus sent the Apostles into the whole world to proclaim the good news. We are blessed to have Bishop Kemme here with us. Since there are 90 parishes in the diocese he needs a little help. I am here, on behalf of the bishop, in this parish to announce the good news to you. I ask for your prayers so that I may be a good and holy priest. Just as I am helping the bishop so also, I need your help to proclaim the Gospel. There are 400 families in this parish. We all need to work together so that every person has the opportunity to hear the Word of God.
