2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud.

Then from the cloud came a voice that said,
"This is my chosen Son; listen to him." -Lk 9:34-35

NOTE FROM FATHER CRAIG TIMMERMAN

You are beloved! The 2nd week of Lent we always read the Transfiguration, this year from the Gospel of Luke. We are those close, intimate friends of Jesus that He invites up the mountain with Him. Pray with that this week. What is it like to be with Jesus? Who is with you as you imagine the passage? How does it affect you when you hear the Father's words? What is the cloud of God's presence like? The first purpose of Lent is to draw closer to Our Lord. Jesus gave the season of Lent to His Church, because He wants to invite us closer to Himself. Prayer is the key. Imagine yourself with Jesus today. In Luke's Gospel, Moses and Elijah talk with Him about 'His exodus He will accomplish in Jerusalem'. In the first exodus, God's people were set free from slavery in Egypt and brought into the promised land. In Jesus' exodus, we are set free from the slavery to sin and brought into God's Kingdom. Already now, we live with God even while we live in the world. At the end of our life here, or when Jesus returns (whichever comes first), we will finish our exodus and live forever with Him in heaven. Jesus shows us the way – the exodus – means the Way of the Cross: suffering, death and resurrection. I invite everyone to join us for stations of the Cross: Wednesday evening in Nicollet and Friday morning or evening in St. Peter. This has always been one of the most powerful ways to pray with Jesus' Passion. The Church holds it up as one of the practices every Christian should do during Lent. In St. Peter we have new Stations of the Cross, as I've mentioned: a gift from St. Malachy Church in Clontarf, MN. A special thanks to Karen Geisler who spent endless hours repairing and touching up the paint, making them beautiful. Also to Dennis Millner who hung the stations for us, and Bill Johnson and Dean Steiner who helped him. They spent many hours. Karen, Bill and Dean are all on our Church Committee. I am so grateful to this committee for all they are doing for us in St. Peter.

Lastly, this Saturday is the Solemnity of St. Joseph. Pray to him that day and again thank him for all he has done to watch over our parishes, our families and the Church. Since it is a Solemnity, if you honor St. Joseph that day, you can also celebrate – a little break from our Lenten penance! You are beloved!

To Make this dream a reality, we need to hear from you, now. We want your ideas. We welcome your help in planning. Come to our next planning meeting March 15th at 3:30pm. There will be many ways to help. There will be sit down jobs and standing jobs for young and old. We’ll find some way for you to help for a short time. Please commit to do your part. The sooner we hear from you, the better events we can plan for. Our clock is running. Please Talk to Us Now!
