3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.

-Jn 21:12-13

NOTE FROM FATHER CRAIG TIMMERMAN

You are beloved! We are well into the Easter season now – celebrating still! Jesus is Risen, and gives Himself to us in the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the greatest gift we have on Earth, because it is the Real Presence of Jesus Christ with us. I am so happy for our first communicants who are blessed by God today, receiving the Body and Blood of Christ for the first time. What happens when they receive the Eucharist for the first time (or when we receive it every time)? We are made part of the Body of Christ. You say – I thought baptism did that already! Well, in part, you're right. But baptism is just the beginning, not the end. Imagine if you told your wife or husband, "Honey, I told you I love you once the day we were married. That's enough! You won't hear me say it again." No way! The vows on the wedding day are meant to form a union 2-become-1, which happens in the communion of man and woman. And from that union comes new life, family, society, cultures, everything we know! Well, our life with God is similar. Baptism is our vows. But Communion is the whole point – to be united as one with God! When Jesus enters us in the Eucharist, we are so united to God, we become one with God. And from this union with God comes Life – eternal life. "I have come that you might have life, and have it more abundantly," Jesus said. And "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." The Eucharist will make us Saints if we cooperate with it. There has never been a Saint who did not go to Mass, not only weekly, but daily as much as possible! Why is that? Because the Saints have learned the secret of the Eucharist – it is Jesus! The Saints value Jesus more than everything else this world has to offer. Life with God, even now, is true happiness. Congratulations to our families who have presented their children today for this greatest joy! Please, be Saints!

Also, last weekend I kicked off our parking lot campaign! Yeah! Finally! It's getting really bad – as you know. It's time. You should have received a letter and pledge card in the mail. I shared in my message (you can find it on the website), we are not only completely re-doing the parking lot, but building it up where the trucks drive and adding a spillway to keep water off it in the winter. Also, we are including the rest of the rectory loan in our goal. Our goal is $400,000. We have $92,000 already pledged! If we all participate, and do our part, we will certainly make our goal! So I pray you, please pray, consider what kind of gift you could make, and fill out the card. It is an act of faith to give to the Church, because we must believe that the Church is where we receive Jesus and where we gather as His Body. Please don't just give leftover funds you have: give from everything you have, and you will be blessed. Can you give $50,000?! Then, please, do so. Can you give $50, then please, do so. You will be blessed. God bless you. I have full confidence in St. Joseph to again take care of us. Alleluia! You are beloved!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. 2022 marks the 59th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations
