7TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you."

Mt 5:44

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER PHIL

A Pre-Lenten Prayer.... From a heart that desires to begin again to yield to God's way of compassion.

Lord, you know my silly foibles and my stubborn independence. I cling to them as if they really matter. My petty pleasures and unhealthy habits keep grieving my soul...making me sad and restless. Will I ever let go of my illusions and cling to you alone?

Brother Jesus, Lent is coming this week and I see you resolutely heading for Jerusalem. The path leads into the desert where you face the temptations that seem so understandable and attractive. Thank you for showing us a way through.

I want to be ready to follow you on God's journey. I know the road is steep and there is danger on all sides. Desire for comfort, security, fame and fortune pop up as we walk on. And always, there is the illusion that we will get there while avoiding the cross and the little sacrifices along the way. That is why I am grateful for Lent. It helps me to embrace the rough parts of the road and to recognize that there is no sharing the Glory with sharing the cross.

So please help me be more open than ever this year to the Spirit that lead you and now us into the desert. For all its empty dry places, we know that there we will encounter our brothers and sisters, especially those that have misunderstood or wounded us. There we will be challenged to take no revenge and cherish no grudge but rather to love them as neighbors who need each other (Lev 19:17-18).

Lord, teach me real wisdom this Lent. A wisdom from above that is from you and not a false wisdom tainted by a world that seeks security in material things or power. May we take the leap of faith that will appear foolish in the eyes of the world! We stand at the edge of a vast valley and you will invite us to jump... to let go and land in your embrace.

There is much of the journey ahead this Lent that I cannot predict or imagine. But I know this: you will invite me to trust you more completely. You alone know what will ultimately bring me joy and satisfaction. May I trust in you and your plan for my life?

I may think I know what will be best for me. But I really do not know what will be asked of me. You always have surprises waiting around the bend which will just happen and I will have to adjust and accept the Lent that is given instead of the one that I would prefer. There will likely be some rough patches and some different people who will ask of me what I may not be ready to give. If it be your will, may I be ready to set aside my map and follow the way you set before me.

I have so appreciated this Lenten journey in the past. May I trust that you will again feed me and protect me as you walk the way by my side. You know the way that leads to true joy and freedom. Lead on, my friend, I trust in You!! ~ Amen

Options
for Women | MANKATO

Options for Women/Options Mankato empowers people with the resources and information to make life-affirming decisions regarding pregnancy, relationships and health, and it is done with care and compassion.

Thank you for supporting this effective life-affirming mission with your financial support and gifts of diapers and baby care items for the Baby Store where clients shop with the credits they earn by doing IMPACT Education classes. For those who are looking for another way to support this mission, we are looking for people who will help financially to train our new Registered Nurse as a Nurse Sonographer which will cost about $5,000-7,000 for training.

Drop off your donations at either parish or in the weekend collection baskets through the month of February. All donations, up to $2,500, received through the parish will be matched. Checks should be written out to "Church of St. Peter" with "Options" in the memo line or on the outside of the envelope or you can give online through WeShare, just scan the QR Code!
