4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said,
"Do you believe in the Son of Man?" - Jn 9:35

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER CRAIG

You are beloved! This Sunday we have confirmation for our junior candidates! Confirmation and receiving the Eucharist at Mass today finishes their initiation into the People of God, the Catholic Church. It began at their baptism, when they first received the Holy Spirit, they became united to the Body of Christ by Holy Eucharist/Communion, and now they receive the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit symbolized by the '7 gifts of the Holy Spirit' which empowers them to be disciples and witnesses to Christ in the Church and the world. Thanks be to God for this gift and these students! Our readings today fit so well! First, in 1 Samuel, we have the anointing of David as king even though he is still a youth and a shepherd of sheep. It says when he was anointed, the 'spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.' This anointing in the Old Testament is only a shadow of the anointing we receive today in the Church! These students will be anointed and the Holy Spirit of God will rush on them. Now, King David has to live that anointing. If he doesn't listen to the LORD, he can still sin, and he does. Then he repents in Psalm 51 beautifully. In confirmation we profess our faith, which is also a promise to LIVE that faith, not just to 'be confirmed'. In Psalm 23 it says, 'You anoint my head with oil!' That's exactly what we do! When we are anointed in confirmation, like in Baptism, we are given grace in our soul that forms it to be like Jesus Christ. We are 'another Christ' (alter Christus). Think about that! That is so powerful. When we live our confirmation by living like Christ we become a sign of Christ in the world, really His presence, the Body of Christ in the world. However, if we choose to not live like Christ, even though our soul is formed in the image of Christ, then we are living a 'counter sign', a lie. This would be a grave scandal to people. Christians are called to show Christ. If we are showing instead something else, people are confused about who Christ really is. "If His followers can act like this, then what does it mean to be a Christian, anyway?", they ask. There are many 'christians' in our world who live this way, and it makes it more difficult for us to show the world who Christ really is! So you see how important it is that we really live that anointing as witnesses of our faith in the world. "Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved and set me free! I once was lost but now am found. I was blind, but now I see." Listen to the JOY in these words! I used to live in darkness/sin! But now I see! To 'see' here means to believe that Christ is my savior, and that Love changes my life. Now I follow Christ, not just what I want to do. I live for Him, not for this world or myself. The Holy Spirit gives us the gift of this life with Christ and the power to live like this. So call on the Holy Spirit to guide your life today! We thank Bishop Chad Zielinski, for being here with us today. You are beloved!

Rejecting Lies and Proclaiming Truth

Last Sunday's gospel was the woman at the well. In last week's homily, Fr. Craig said, "The well where Jesus comes is our place of greatest shame." God desires us and pursues us here. Let Jesus meet us at the well, be seen and loved and set free.

In our baptism and confirmation, we are given the authority to reject the lies that we too often believe about ourselves. The lies that we are unloveable, undesirable, abandoned, rejected. We can then proclaim the truth that we are loved, good, enough, not alone, and redeemed by Christ.

A Daily Practice you can do

In the name of Jesus Christ I reject the lie that _____.
 In the name of Jesus Christ, I reject the spirit _____.
 In the name of Jesus Christ, I claim that _____.
