EASTER SUNDAY

"Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay." - Mt 28:5b-6

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER CRAIG

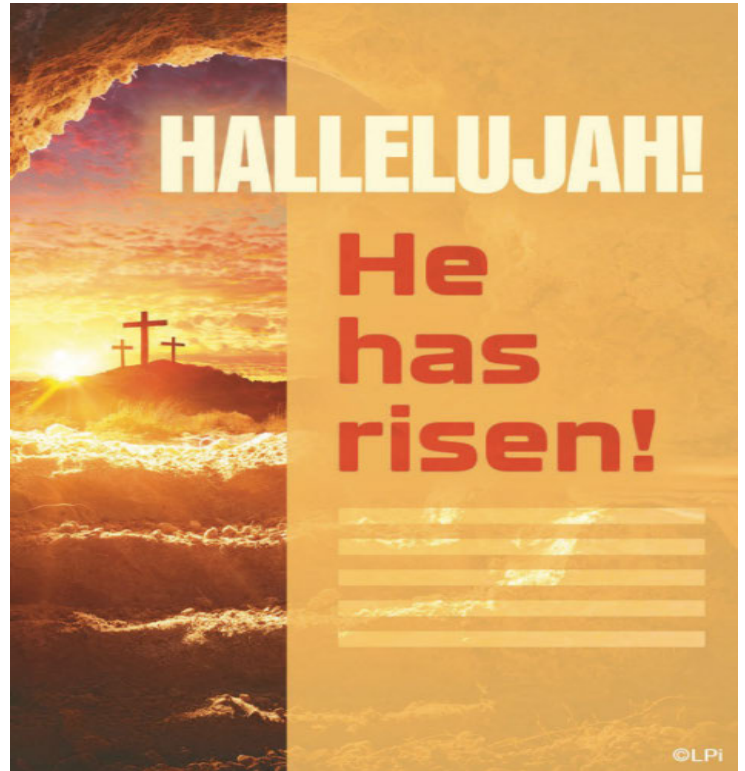

You are beloved! Happy Easter! Christ is Risen! He is Risen, indeed! Alleluia! Lots of exclamation points :)! It is really true - Jesus, who was dead, has been raised to immortal life. Body and soul, He is alive forever in God. Easter is all about Resurrection and it is all about baptism. At Easter Vigil we light candles to express the light of Christ rising in the darkness of night. Later, we bless new holy water in a very solemn ritual. Then we renew our baptismal vows and are sprinkled again with the waters of our baptism. By our baptism we are given the power to die to our old life and to rise to new life with Jesus, just as He died and rose to new life today. We become beloved sons and daughters of God, and as sons and daughters, we are heirs of heaven!

You see, it is all about a relationship with God. We truly belong to God's family. Baptism is entrance into that family of God. God is our Father. Jesus is our brother, because He makes us His brothers and sisters when He became one of us. The Holy Spirit gives us the power to be 'divinized', to have God's life in us even now! This is what it means to be Christian. So you are invited to true, deep, real intimacy with Jesus.

All Lent I've told you to 'stay with Jesus', in the desert, at the well, on the mountain top, and at the cross. If we remain with Him through all that, then we also get to 'stay with Jesus' in the Resurrection. I invite you to pray this Easter with the Divine Mercy image. This is the image of Jesus, with the red and blue rays shining out of His Heart and the words, "Jesus, I Trust in You" at the bottom. It is a picture of Jesus on the day of His Resurrection. Imagine Jesus inviting you into His Heart - right in that place where he is touching His Heart with His Hand. He is inviting you to come close. What is it like to receive His love and life there? How do you sense His presence, being with you, as you look at the image of Divine Mercy. This is the gift of our baptism - intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. Sure - it is nice to be able to have all the good things we gave up for Lent. But this is the real Easter - receiving His words, "Peace be with you." I've been so encouraged by your efforts this Lent! You've offered sacrifices just because you believe in Jesus and want to grow closer to Him. You've done extra prayer, adoration time, daily Mass, Lenten prayer books and journaling. You've gone to confession and really brought things to the light, asking for forgiveness and healing. All of this prepared you to receive this grace of Easter: 'Peace be with you!' So take some time during this week of Easter (octave - 8 days of Easter), and look at the Divine Mercy Image and stay with Jesus in His Resurrection, too! He is Risen! Alleluia!

You are beloved!

St. Paul's Spring Plant, Bake, & Rummage Sale
April 28-29, 2023

We'll need treasures to sell at our Big Rummage Sale.

We'll accept most items of rummage, collectibles, antiques, and hand crafted items. Please don't bring electronics, clothing, large furniture, or appliances.

We'll also want plants to sell. Start thinking about what sort of plants you might donate or split off from your flower gardens.

This year we're adding a bake sale. There will be sign-up sheets for workers.

Don't wait to drop off your first bag of donations for the Rummage Sale! Once you've got your first bag or box of donations together, go ahead and bring it to church on Sunday. This approach will help you at home to keep your task manageable and it will help us to get a head start on sorting and pricing your donated treasures.
