PASTOR'S † CORNER

Rest in Peace, Pope Francis

Holy Name and St. Mary Parish Family,

In the wee hours of the day Saturday morning, Pope Francis, the 266th Pope of the Roman Catholic Church, was laid to rest at St. Mary Major Cathedral in Rome. This is a seminal moment for all Catholics. Every time the Holy Father dies, we grieve and mourn the loss of a spiritual father to us all. He was the face of mercy and joy to many Catholics and non-Catholics alike. We pray for him and commend him to God, because like all of us, he is a human being who faces the sleep of death with the hope of Resurrection.

Of course in this time of uncertainty and transition it is our duty to fast and pray for the upcoming conclave, where the cardinal electors will choose the next leader for our Church. Please join me and all in the universal Church in this effort. The conclave should begin around the fifth or sixth of May. We will pray together many times, invoking our trust in the Holy Spirit to guide His Church.

To Jesus Through Mary,
 Fr. Clay

Parish News

Divine Mercy Sunday Holy Hour

Please join us this Sunday, April 27, for a Divine Mercy Holy Hour from 5:00 - 6:00 p.m. at Holy Name.

Fr. Clay Gone This Week

Fr. Clay will be gone this week (4/28 - 5/2) for spiritual direction training, so there will be no daily Mass. He will take the week's Mass intentions with him.

Knights of Columbus Taco Meals

The Knights are selling taco meals that will be available after Mass (5:30 - 7:00 p.m.) on Saturday, May 3rd. Meals are $10 and include two tacos, rice, beans, and a dessert. You can dine in at the hall, or take meals to go. Pre-orders are greatly appreciated. Please call or text Paul at (620) 222-5499.

May Crowning on Mother's Day

At both Sunday Masses on May 11th, we will do the May Crowning. Children can gather at the back of the churches before Mass to bring roses to Mary at the beginning of Mass.

CYM Carnation Sale

CYM will once again be selling carnations for Mother's Day. Flowers will be sold after all three Masses on Mother's Day weekend (May 10th and 11th). Thanks in advance for your support of CYM!

Congratulations To Our New Members!

Please welcome our new members initiated into the Church at the Easter Vigil last weekend.
