A Happy Easter to everyone!!!

This is a great and wondrous day! Today we celebrate the one thing that changes everything, Jesus' triumph over sin and death. St. Paul tells us that if Jesus was not raised from the dead, then our faith is in vain, it is pointless. If Jesus did not come back, our sins are not forgiven and we have no chance at eternal life. Today is the most important celebration of the year, because of this reality.

Today is a day of hope, because despite what any of us have done, we have the opportunity for forgiveness and therefore an opportunity for redemption. We are all sinners, and too many of us use that as an excuse to stay distant from our Lord. Today we celebrate that He chose to die for us, so that we could be forgiven. Please, spend some time this week celebrating and recalling the great fact of Jesus' love.

The party is not just for today, all of next week the Church will celebrate everyday as if it is still Easter morning. Please ask our Lord to show you His love daily. Those who have been away for a while, and maybe are focused on past offenses, remember that our Lord asked for the Father's forgiveness for those who murdered Him, as well as each of us. He goes in search of those who betrayed Him and ran away when He needed them most, so that He can reconcile. Our Lord desires to reconcile with you!! Please allow Him to do so. For those who have been away for a while, please let us know if there is anything we can do to help you in your faith life. We are here to walk with you, and our amazingly awesome staff would love to help you grow closer to Christ! Come back next Sunday and celebrate our Lord's Divine Mercy with us!

COLLECT

O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING Acts of the Apostles 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the Lord has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes. R.

SECOND READING Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

R: Glory to you, O Lord.

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.
