5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." - Jn 8:6b-7

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

APRIL 2 & 3, 2022

Fr. Raphael, the Deacons and the parishioners of St. Anne & St. Patrick churches welcome you to our parish. Please introduce yourself to Fr., Deacon or any parish member. We are happy you are here! If you are interested in making St. Anne or St. Patrick your home parish, please contact the appropriate parish office (see the numbers above) or simply ask someone here; they will be happy to help you contact Annette or Michele. It is a simple process to become a registered member. Again, welcome! We hope you return again soon. Be blessed!

Medicine for the Soul

Why should we receive the sacrament of reconciliation? Almost every Catholic has to answer this question at some point. Many people don't understand why Catholics must confess their sins to a priest, and many people believe we need to only acknowledge our sins to God.

So how do we answer this important question? Perhaps the place to begin is with an understanding of the damage done by sin. Every sin damages our relationship with God. If the sin is venial, we've damaged the relationship, but it is not broken. If the sin is mortal, we've broken it. Sin also damages our relationship with the Church. To some degree, we've violated truths the Church holds, and our communion with our brothers and sisters in Christ is weakened—or perhaps broken, depending on the sin. Finally, sin damages our relationship with humanity. Sinning hurts our fellow human beings and ourselves.

If we're to apologize and attempt to change our behavior, who deserves to receive that apology? We owe an apology to God, everyone in the Church, and every human being. These are the relationships that need to be healed. Yet this would be next to impossible.

This is where the priest comes in. A priest is a mediator between God and his people. By his ordination, he is God's representative or ambassador on earth. The Church gives him the power to speak on its behalf, and he represents humanity before God. In a special way, a priest has the faculty to speak on behalf of all the parties who deserve an apology. So, the priest receives our confession on behalf of God, the Church, and all of humanity.

But the priest goes beyond accepting the apology. He helps us fulfill the requirement of contrition. Contrition exceeds an apology. It's a desire not to repeat the offense. This may be difficult, so we always ask for God's grace to avoid sin. But even hearts that don't want to sin need help knowing how to avoid it. Thus, the priest offers advice and a penance. Penance is like medicine for the soul. If we understand the purpose of penance, we begin a practice that can help us avoid a particular sin. While the penance may be specific, the idea is that we've at least started on the right path to avoid sin, and now we may freely choose to continue on that path. Finally, Christ forgives our sins through the priest and doesn't hold us guilty. Christ's forgiveness allows established relationships to be restored and new relationships to begin—even though the effects of the sinful action may still exist in the real world.

Saints Among Us

ST. ISIDORE OF SEVILLE

(560-636), Doctor of the Church

In 1997, Pope St. John Paul II declared St. Isidore of Seville the patron saint of the Internet because he tried to catalogue everything that was ever known to man.

An amazingly learned man, he was sometimes called "The Schoolmaster of the Middle Ages" because the encyclopedia he wrote was used as a textbook for nine centuries. He required seminaries to be built in every diocese, wrote a Rule for religious orders, and founded schools that taught every branch of learning. Isidore wrote numerous books, including a dictionary, an encyclopedia, a history of Goths, and a history of the world—beginning with creation! His twenty-book opus is called Etymologia. The word "etymology" was created by Isidore - it means "the study of origins." Published after his death in 636, it was for a thousand years considered the encyclopedia of all human knowledge.

For all these reasons, Isidore is the patron of Internet users and Computer users.

Our society can well use Isidore's spirit of combining learning and holiness. Loving, understanding and knowledge can heal and bring a broken people back together. We are not barbarians like the invaders of Isidore's Spain. But people who are swamped by riches and overwhelmed by scientific and technological advances can lose much of their understanding love for one another.

Feast day: April 4

Before logging in on the internet:

ALMIGHTY AND ETERNAL GOD, You created us in your image and ask us to seek after all that is good, true and beautiful. Through the intercession of Saint Isidore, in the time we spend on the internet and on social media may we direct our hands and eyes only to that which is pleasing to You and treat with charity and patience all those souls whom we encounter.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
