PALM SUNDAY

As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. - Lk 19:36, 37b

Saints Among Us

Saint Charbel Makhoul

St. Charbel was born in 1828 into a family of five children. His father was a mule driver who died just a few years after Charbel was born. They lived in a small village located at the top of the highest Lebanese mountain. He was raised in a pious home, where Charbel was drawn to the lives of the Saints and to the life of a hermit. Charbel was responsible for caring for the family's small herd of cows. He would take the herd to a grotto nearby where he had put an icon of the Blessed Mother Mary, and that is where he would spend his day in prayer. In 1815, Charbel left his family and entered a Maronite Monastery of Our Lady where he became a monk.

St Charbel has performed hundreds of thousands of miracles when he was alive as a Catholic Monk and Hermit, and even more after his death on December 24, 1898 and to this current day in over 133 countries around the world. St Charbel has performed miracles to people that are sick, disabled, mentally ill and dying from various religions including Christians, Muslims, Buddhist, Hindus, Jewish, Atheists, etc., just to name a few.

The Monastery in Mount Lebanon receives hundreds of thousands of letters every year from people who want to share the great news of miracles, cures and wonders performed by St Charbel. This figure does not include the hundreds of thousands of email, phone calls, texts, face-book messages received by the monastery.

It will be virtually impossible to write and describe every miracle that St. Charbel has performed during and after his life. He was buried at his local Monastery on Christmas Day. It was reported that, during the transport of his corpse, the inclement weather conditions hindered the pallbearers in carrying out their duty.

"Father Charbel died on the eve of Christmas; the snow was heavy. We transferred him to the monastery on Christmas day. Before we moved him, the snow was falling rapidly and the clouds were very dark. When we carried him, the clouds disappeared, and the weather cleared." - Statement by one of the pallbearers

A few months after his death, a bright light was seen surrounding his tomb and the superiors opened it to find his body still intact. After that day, a blood-like liquid flowed from his body. Experts and doctors were unable to give medical explanations for the incorruptibility and flexibility. In the years 1950 and 1952, his tomb was opened again, and his body still had the appearance of life. Additionally, the 1950 TV recording shows that at this point St. Charbel's body was still intact, despite the grave becoming severely rusty.

St. Charbel is one of my favorite saints!
Many blessings!
Dcn. Denny

The Gift of Redemption

Welcome to the holiest week of the year! This week, Christians around the world dedicate their minds and hearts to meditate on the great gift of the redemption won for them by Christ. It is a cosmic event that happened 2,000 years ago but it bears fruit today in the heart of every Christian in every continent, country, city, and home.

As chaotic and nonsensical as evil appears in our world, it also seems to have a commonality that betrays a will, or an intelligence hidden beneath the surface. The suffering and destruction of so many people from senseless violence, famine, and hatred seems at once both spontaneous, yet strangely orchestrated by some force—we all know the name of that force...

The same was true for Christ's crucifixion. On the surface it appears the result of a feverish crowd, a confused politician, a jealous and blinded religious leadership, and an overwhelmed group of cowardly followers. Yet we perceive the return of the tempter, Lucifer, the author of the "I will not serve God". The power of evil that struck the head continues to strike the body. Be aware, my brothers and sisters, of the call for all followers of Christ to be ready to face the same struggle against evil that he did, and with the same measure of love. + Dcn Mike

Be aware of the call for all followers of Jesus to be ready to face the same struggle
against evil that he did,
and with the same measure of love.

A Word from Pope Francis

Let us make Jesus' prayer our own: let us ask the Father to remove the veil from our eyes, so that in looking at the crucifix over these days, we may understand that God is love.

At Easter, God reveals himself in the humility of a love that seeks our love. Thus, we give him glory.
