Saints Among Us -

Alexandrina Maria da Costa † The Victim Soul †

(1904 – 1955) – Beatified Pope JP-II

Alexandrina was born in Balasar, Portugal. When she was 12, she contracted an infection and nearly died; the consequences of this infection remained with her and would become the "first sign" that God was calling her to be a "victim soul". On Holy Saturday of 1918, while Alexandrina and a young friend were busily sewing, three men violently entered their home and attempted to sexually violate them. To preserve her purity, she jumped from a window, falling 13 feet to the ground. Her injuries were many, and the doctors diagnosed her paralysis as "irreversible" and would only get worse. Until age 19, Alexandrina was able to "drag herself" to church where she would remain in prayer, to the great amazement of the parishioners. But with her paralysis and pain worsening, she was forced to remain completely bedridden, until her death thirty years later. Little by little, however, God helped her to see that suffering was her vocation and that she had a special call to be the Lord's "Victim Soul". The more Alexandrina "understood" that this was her mission, the more willingly she embraced it. She said: "Our Lady has given me an even greater grace: first, abandonment; then, complete conformity to God's will; finally, the thirst for suffering". For a little over 4 years, Alexandrina lived the complete three-hour "passion" of Jesus every Friday - a mystical grace to live in body and soul Christ's suffering in his final hours. During these three hours, her paralysis was "overcome", and she would relive the Stations of the Cross, her movements and gestures accompanied by excruciating physical and spiritual pain. She was also diabolically assaulted and tormented with temptations against the faith and with injuries inflicted on her body. For the last thirteen years of her life, Alexandrina lived only on the nourishment of the Sacred Eucharist, she ate nothing else. Her weight stayed about 73 pounds. Jesus himself spoke to her one day: "You will very rarely receive consolation... I want that while your heart is filled with suffering, on your lips there is a smile". So for the rest of her life, her suffering from the Stigmata and the other permanent severe sufferings, she was always joyful and smiling. She was truly, a Victim Soul for God. Alexandrina desired the following words written on her tombstone: "Sinners, if the dust of my body can be of help to save you, come close, walk over it, kick it around until it disappears. But never sin again: do not offend Jesus anymore! Sinners, how much I want to tell you.... Do not risk losing Jesus for all eternity, for he is so good. Enough with sin. Love Jesus, love him!" Her last words were: "I am happy, because I am going to Heaven". Alexandrina Maria da Costa, pray for us! Blessings, Dcn. Denny

We're not defined by our weakness but created for greatness!

Look at King David, Saint Paul, and the sinful woman. David was an adulterer and murderer, yet he wrote psalms and was Jesus' ancestor. Paul participated in the murder of one of the first deacons, Stephen, yet became the greatest apostle to the Gentiles. The sinful woman's misdeeds were public, yet what is most remembered is her repentance and love.

Sin is not the last word. God's recreating mercy is. God's mercy only asks for a response so all that transformative power can be unleashed in us. The only thing that stands in the way of God's renewal rushing in and totally transforming us is our own lack of acceptance of this grace.

Sin wants to stand in the way of this Good News—this gospel. The evil one tries to convince us we are too sinful, too messed-up—that salvation and happiness might be for others, but never for us.

But David, Paul, and the sinful woman didn't let that sinister message sink in. David was moved to repentance by Nathan's words. Paul accepted that he wasn't saved by his religious fervor or condemned for his errors. He was saved by letting Christ's merciful love embrace him. The sinful woman refused to be defined by her poor choices. She tearfully made penance at Christ's feet, and this act of her brokenness gave off a consoling aroma that filled the house.

Sin is Never the Last Word!

Let the power of Christ's love be unleashed in you by forgiving yourself and others. Then your weakness will be the first step toward the greatness God has in store for you.

+ Dcn Mike
