Saints among us

St. Rita of Cascia

Born in 1381 near Cascia, Italy, her parents considered her birth a very special gift from God because of their advanced age. As a young girl Rita frequently visited the convent of the Nuns, and dreamed of one day joining their community. Her parents, however, had promised her in marriage to Paolo Mancini, a good man of strong and impetuous character. Rita accepted her parents' decision, and resolved to see this as God's will.

Death Of Husband And Sons

One day as Paolo was returning home from work he was ambushed and killed. The pain inflicted upon Rita was only compounded by the fear that her two teenage sons would seek to avenge their father's death. As it happened, the death of both boys from natural causes a short time later removed them from physical and spiritual danger. Despite her great burden she could still thank God that they had died in peace, free of the poison of murder to which hatred and revenge might have otherwise drawn them.

Peacemaker

Now alone in the world Rita once more turned her thoughts to her desired vocation, that of joining the Augustinian Nuns of Saint Mary Magdalene Monastery. Some of the religious of the community, however, were relatives of the members of the political faction who were responsible for her husband's death. Rita knew God's plan for her. She implored her three patron saints: John the Baptist, Augustine, and Nicholas of Tolentino to assist her, and established peace between the hostile parties that killed her husband.

The Gift Of The Thorn

At the age of thirty-six, Rita entered the monastery and followed the Rule of Saint Augustine. For the next forty years she gave herself to prayer and works of charity. With a pure love she wanted more and more to be intimately joined to the redemptive suffering of Jesus. One day when she was about sixty years old, she was meditating before an image of Christ crucified. Suddenly a small wound appeared on her forehead, as though a thorn from the crown that encircled Christ's head had loosed itself and penetrated her own flesh. For the next fifteen years she bore this external sign of stigmatization and union with the Lord. In spite of the pain she constantly experienced, she offered herself courageously for the physical and spiritual well being of others.

The Rose

A few months before her death, a relative visited Rita and asked whether she had any special desires. Rita asked only that a rose from the garden of her parents' home be brought to her - in the month of January! On returning home the woman discovered, to her amazement, a single brightly-colored blossom on the bush where the nun said it would be. Picking it, she returned immediately to the monastery and presented it to Rita who gave thanks to God for this sign of love. Thus, the saint of the thorn became the saint of the rose, and she whose impossible requests were granted her became the advocate of all those whose own requests seem impossible as well. Rita died at the age of seventy-six and her body, which has remained incorrupt over the centuries, is venerated today in the shrine of Cascia, which bears her name.

St. Rita of Cascia pray for us!

Jesus Awaits Us

In the Apostles' Creed we pray, "He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father."

Jesus lived forty days in his glorified body after the resurrection, but at the end he rose into heaven where he awaits each of us.

It was planned all along that he, who came down from heaven, would return there. "No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man" we hear in John's Gospel.

The amazing truth is that he has opened heaven for us, cheering on each of us to join him forever! "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be".

We are not alone in our efforts to become more like the Lord, God sends his Holy Spirit to be with us and strengthen us for all of the challenges life throws at us. So we're not only striving to get to heaven, but Jesus is there interceding with power for an ongoing outpouring of his Holy Spirit upon each of us.

Imagine Jesus as your intercessor in heaven, pleading your case as a brother, as a friend, before our loving Father!

Jesus Christ, having entered the sanctuary of heaven once and for all, intercedes constantly for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Catechism of the Catholic Church paragraph 667

As I remind my dear patients in Hospice care, if God is for us, who can be against us?

Our Earthly journey has a very joyful destination. Jesus is there, inaugurating his messianic kingdom. He told Pilate that his kingdom wasn't of this world. He has now taken the throne of his kingdom and will draw all peoples to himself. You and I will become witnesses to this kingdom with no end. All we must do is remain in God's friendship. We will be reunited with all the friends of God throughout all time!

So, let's live with newfound confidence. Jesus is in heaven today interceding for us, inaugurating his kingdom, and preparing our eternal home.

+ Dcn Mike
