PASTORAL REFLECTION

Are we successful Christians? It is not an easy question to answer. What is the measure of success for the followers of Christ? Is it enough to avoid really big sins and make it to Mass on Sundays? That wasn't the criteria that Christ gave us. He put the bar higher, because he loves us, and when you love someone you always seek the very best for them. You are not satisfied with mediocrity. Christ didn't command us just to go to Church and be nice. It doesn't stop there. Christ commanded us to love one another as he loved us, and to go out and make disciples of all nations.

That's what Christ did. He was successful at it. And what did his success bring him? Misunderstanding, persecution, rejection, unpopularity. He went around doing good, tiring himself out healing the sick, casting demons out of the possessed, comforting the troubled, giving himself to others out of love, and what did he get for it? All the influential and powerful people - the Pharisees and Sadducees - started calling him a rabble-rouser and spreading rumors that he was a drunkard and an agent of the devil. He went around preaching the truth, the truth about sin and salvation. He preached it fearlessly, eloquently, lovingly, with his words and with his example. And what did he get for it? His own townspeople rejected him; they tried to throw him off a cliff!

Christ fulfilled his life mission, but it didn't make him popular. If we are to fulfill our life mission, we need to be ready to suffer similar consequences. We can measure our success as Christians not by how comfortable our faith is making us, but by how uncomfortable it is making us.

Jesus wants us to live life to the full, and so he invites us out of our comfort zones. He invites us to move forward, to grow, to push ourselves, out of love, to become better Christians, better human beings, better ambassadors of Christ's Kingdom. Jesus is interested in many fields of "uncomfortableness." I would like to remind you of one: spreading the faith.

As Christians, we have been given the greatest treasure on earth: we know the meaning of life, and we know how to achieve it. If we aren't eager to share this knowledge with others, something is seriously wrong. It could be that we haven't let this knowledge sink in to our own lives. In that case, you really need to take some steps to do so - come to our adult faith formation programs offered in our AFC.

On the other hand, it could be that we are afraid of what people will think of us if we bring up the faith over a cup of coffee, or if we invite a Cont. on Pg. 3

Welcome to all those who celebrate with us, whether life long parishioners, new arrivals in the area, or visitors! If you have not registered, or if you have moved, please complete this form and drop it in the collection basket or bring it to the parish office.

PASTORAL MESSAGE

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week. A very special thank you to everyone who helps support St Mary's Catholic School. A special thanks to all of our school teachers and staff for their service and dedication to our school.

We are just 30 days away from the beginning of Lent! (March 2 through April 14). Now is the time to be planning how we can make this year's Lent the best Lent ever! Will we set aside time in our week for prayer? Service? Almsgiving? Will you participate in the liturgies of the Church? (Mass, stations, penance services).

Fr Joseph Steilbeisser

neighbor to come to Mass. Being afraid of what other people think in this way can be a guillotine for our spiritual lives. That fear is natural; it comes from vanity. But our mission in life is supernatural, and that will always make us a little bit uncomfortable. The Catechism emphasizes the importance of this aspect of our mission: "Service of and witness to the faith are necessary for salvation" (CCC 1816).

Jesus wants us to be courageous, to overcome laziness and vanity with love. He knows that it will give our lives deeper meaning, deeper happiness.

Fr. Joseph Steinbeisser

GIFTS FOR BABY JESUS

As we celebrated Epiphany on Jan.2, the area CCW invites you to participate in their “Gifts for Baby Jesus” service project. These gifts will be donated to Hope Pregnancy Center who helps women in West Central Minnesota. Today will be the last day to donate!!

ST. ALOYSIUS NEWS

St. Aloysius CCW Dues: We are changing the way we collect dues for St. Aloysius CCW to be in line with how the other parishes in our AFC collect dues. An envelope has been included in with the Church Offering Envelopes that are mailed out. It is green in color and included before the January 30 weekly envelope and is also dated January 30. If you do not receive envelopes in the mail and wish to pay your dues, you may place your dues in an envelope labeled SA CCW Dues (please make sure we know who you are) or you may pay them with the online payment option. Thank you for supporting St Aloysius CCW!!

ST. MARY'S NEWS

Fall Collection: It looks like we will not make our goal of $65,000 for the Fall Collection this year. This collection replaces a parish dinner and festival/bazaar that many parishes have for a major fundraiser. We have been sitting at $49,654.16 (76.39% of our goal) for several weeks now. If you have not yet donated to this collection, please help us out in reaching our goal.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL NEWS

Today marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week, the national celebration of Catholic education and the value it provides to the nation. The parish community benefits in many ways by having a Catholic school. It is recognized that the parish community continually makes sacrifices to provide for a Catholic-based educational choice, yet the financial need is great and we hope you will take this day to show your support for this local Catholic school and all of the schools within the diocese.

- an electronic contribution through ACH (Automatic Clearing House) for an amount to be transferred from your checking or savings account on the 1st and/or the 15th of every month. The ACH form can be found on the Area Faith Community website at www.heartofjesusafc.org
- special collections are available with online donations at www.heartofjesusafc.org or ACH donations with the form found on the website.
