3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Back Page

Greetings! Sunday afternoon, the 24th. About 4:40 or so. It is nice to be writing for the bulletin coming up, as opposed to writing ahead three weeks because of printing deadlines! And have I got lots on my mind!

First off, thanks again to all who helped with our Holy Week Masses and Services. To those who went to the Holy Saturday Easter Vigil. Lord... I found myself wallowing in the pit of despair after that Mass. The fire went out; had to relight it. The nails fell out of the Easter Candle cross. (Still missing one. Small. Red. Let me know if you find it.) I forgot to light the incense before Mass. I know there were some other things that weren't 100% perfect. But none of them... Not the ones mentioned nor those I can't remember, can compare to one major, huge, gigantic, humongous, (get my point?) goof-up. Sigh... I went to bless the water in the Holy Water tank, only to discover I hadn't put any water in it! I had the tank all ready, right where I wanted it to be, where it would stand all during the Easter Season. But, I take the lid off? Nothing! Not a drop! My mind was racing! I thought about Jesus, as in "water into wine," but I didn't need wine! I needed water! Lord... How to recover. What to do. Well, there was absolutely nothing to do except get some water. So there me and a Server are, going to the sacristy, filling up milk jugs with water to pour into the tank! Oh my. I have been celebrating Easter Vigils for years and years! Never... Not ever... have I forgotten to put water in the tank! Could have been worse I guess. I know of some churches where the fire got out of control and burned sanctuary carpeting. How about that? (No, I'm not talking about me.) Well, there is no way that is ever going to happen to me again! No siree! Hey! For fun, how about calling me up next Holy Saturday, regardless of where the Vigil will be at, and ask me if the Holy Water tank is all ready to go! You will chuckle. I will chuckle. (And then I will go check the tank!) Lord... But you know what? The Easter Vigil sent me into the pit of despair for sure. But the 9:00 Easter Sunday morning Mass brought me up out of it, big time! Such a wonderfully large congregation! Such a wonderful celebration. Didn't have to bless any water; just sprinkle the folks with water blessed the night before! I loved it! From the pit of despair to true Easter Joy! Praise the Lord!!

There is much more I want to write about!

Alas, out of room. Maybe next week. Until then, blessings to you all. And we still say "Happy Easter!"

Another submission from an online reader:

My wife yelled from upstairs and asked, "Do you ever get a shooting pain across your body, like someone's got a voodoo doll of you and they're stabbing it?" I replied "No..." She responded: "How about now?" Ha! Ha!

And this: I had a happy childhood...My Dad used to put me in a tire and roll me down a hill. Those were the "Goodyears..." ☺

And on a serious note: "The trick is to love others as they are, not as you'd like them to be." For sure!
