Please try to join us this Wednesday, May 25th at 12 noon as St. Ursula's Band will honor Fr. Chester Murtha and our pastor, Fr. Paul as Pioneer Sons of our parish. After a three year absence, we are bringing back our luncheon to celebrate in our new Parish Center. This luncheon is hosted by St. Ursula's Band, but it is for everyone. Help us honor Fr. Murtha, who supported our idea to begin building a new parish center, and Fr. Paul, who enthusiastically helped us complete it!

Community Vacation Bible School (VBS) - June 20th -23rd at the Miller Lutheran Church. Ages 4 years to 4th grade completed.

Plus One Pregnancy Guidance Center Baby Bottle Fundraiser : Look for bottles in the church entrances. The drive will go up until Father's Day. And get this: Both KC Councils are going to match the parish donations up to $500.00! Thank you KC's! I think this is a good cause. Please match the KC's in generosity!

“Bishop's Charity Fishing Tournaments:” The 27th annual tournaments are on June 6th in Big Stone City and June 13th in Pierre. All proceeds go to support seminarian education. Questions: Call (605) 988-3765.

Hand County Right to Life: The next meeting is Tuesday, June 7th, 7:00pm at St. Ann's. Please come!

Regarding Memorial Day and Mass: There will be no Mass on Memorial Day this year. None at either church. None at either cemetery. I will be with family this year.

Related: Any special displays and decorations placed in either cemetery must be removed by the Monday after Memorial Day—that is—June 6th. After that, stuff will be removed by the folks who mow the lawns. Thanks!

Congratulations St. Ann’s Graduates:

Holy Moly! The Plus One Baby Bottle fund drive has taken off! When I got back from Highmore last weekend I discovered two bottles at St. Ann’s already filled and returned! Thank you to those generous, quick acting donors! If any of you did not get a bottle and want one, if we are out, I will see about getting some more. It is a great cause!

So... Here we are, the Sixth Sunday of Easter. It is a long season. Might be hard to maintain the spirit of Easter. Focusing on Jesus, the Resurrection, the early Church, the joy that is to mark the season, the joy that is to mark our Christian lives. We can’t maintain any of it if we don’t maintain our prayer life. I speak about having a prayer life often. I write about it often. And often, I wonder if anybody listens. If anybody responds. Are the majority of the parishioners of St. Mary and St. Ann Parishes people of regular, disciplined prayer? Or, are the majority people who don’t have much of a prayer life at all? I know what I think on that...

Pray folks. And try to stay in the spirit of Easter. Next Sunday is the Seventh Sunday of Easter, but we, as most dioceses’, will be celebrating the Ascension of Our Lord, which, on the church calendar, is on May 26th. Years ago most bishops decided to move the celebration to the following Sunday so that more people would be able to celebrate it, it being on a Sunday and not on a Thursday. Then, after the Ascension, celebrated next Sunday, the 29th, we have Pentecost Sunday on June 5th, and then we move back into the Season of Ordinary Time.

Full disclosure: DeAnn, God bless her, put the blurb about my 35th Anniversary of my Ordination to the Priesthood in the column opposite. As chief editor of this bulletin, I kept the blurb. I appreciate the thought and am grateful for my 35 years of Priesthood. It is not easy being a Priest these days. I don’t know if it ever was. As I think about it, I don’t think it is easy being a parent these days, or a husband or a wife, or a strong Christian or Catholic. There are so many forces working against priests and married couples and parents and Christians and Catholics. What to do? Stick together. Pray. We have Jesus!

“After a father scolded his 8-year old son for being so unruly, the boy packed some of his clothes and his piggy bank and announced: “I’m running away from home!” The father calmly asked, “And what will you do when you get hungry?” “Then I’ll come home and eat,” the child replied. “And what if you find yourself out of money?” the father asked. “I will come home and get some,” the boy answered. “And what if your clothes get dirty?” the father asked. “Then I’ll come home and let Mommy wash them,” the boy replied. The father turned to the mother and exclaimed, “This kid is not running away from home; he’s going to college.” (-via George Goldtrap, JN.) Happy Graduation!
